SAINT CHARLES BORROMEEO SEMINARY ANNUAL APPEAL

If you receive the Philadelphia Inquirer on Sunday, you most likely saw the front page article entitled "Failure at the Top" in last Sunday's edition. This article, spread out over five pages, outlined how some bishops in our country have failed in their response to sexual misconduct among the clergy over the past few decades. It is a very disturbing account of mismanagement and disregard for the victims of this abuse. Again, I ask you to join me in praying for all of the victims, that they may find healing and wholeness in their lives. And, I ask that you join me in prayer to the Holy Spirit to guide the bishops who will be attending their Annual Fall General Assembly this week so that they can address this issue with courage, honesty, humility and integrity, admit their shortcomings, call the guilty to justice and determine how best to care for the victims.

In the face of the ongoing clergy sex abuse scandal, you might expect that our seminaries would be emptying out. After all, who would want to join an institution that is seemingly destroying itself from the inside? Ironically, many seminaries throughout the country, including ours, are experiencing a significant growth as men come to prepare to proclaim the Gospel of our Lord in response to a call they have experienced in their spiritual journey. I went to the seminary recently for a special dinner with all of the seminary staff and was happily surprised to find them in very good spirits. I asked a few seminarians why, in the face of this tragic scandal, they are continuing to prepare for the priesthood. The answer they gave was very strong and reassuring. They said that they felt called by our Lord to help rebuild the Church and they knew that they had to become especially holy men in order to be part of that rebuilding. An examination of the history of our Church will reveal many times when its leaders – frail, sinful humans like the rest of us – have been unfaithful to God's call and have been called back to the Lord, who is the Way, the Truth and the Life. The patron of our parish, St. Catherine of Siena, is a wonderful example of someone who was deeply involved in the reform of the Church in her own day. I recommend that you read up on her if you haven't already done so. Her story of a lay woman who challenged the popes of her day is truly inspirational!

Both Monsignor Carroll and I attended St. Charles Seminary and taught there; Msgr. Carroll was the rector of the seminary, as well. Both of us found our formation at the seminary to be inspirational; we still talk of our years there with great fondness. Our seminary doesn't prepare only priests for our Archdiocese. Ten dioceses throughout the country, as well as the Dioceses of Da Nang, Vietnam and Mymensingh, Bangladesh, along with six religious congregations, send men to St. Charles Borromeo Seminary for formation. And, the seminary also trains a number of men who are preparing for the permanent diaconate, including Jim White, one of our parishioners. Additionally, the seminary houses the School of Theological Studies for anyone in the Archdiocese - clergy, religious and lay - who wants to pursue further studies in the Catholic faith. I received my Masters Degree in Theology there before being sent to Rome for doctoral studies in moral theology.

Like every other registered parishioner throughout the Archdiocese, you should have already received a packet from St. Charles Borromeo Seminary as it holds its annual direct mail appeal. Support for our seminary is especially important today. As part of our annual Seminary Appeal, Mr. Steven DiMassimo, a seminarian, will speak at all the Masses next weekend to let you know about the seminary and ask for your continued support. The motto for this year is: For Today. For Tomorrow. For All of Us – a very fitting motto as we look to support the seminary today as it prepares the priests, deacons and laity to serve us for years to come! Please be as generous as you can in supporting our seminary to ensure a continued bright future for this very important institution of our Archdiocese.

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Parish Website

We are excited to announce the launch of our new website which features better mobile navigation, event announcements and online giving. Check it out at www.sksparish.org!

Last Saturday was a beautiful day cheering on the Special Olympians at Villanova University during their soccer and volleyball games!

November Youth Group after our 6:00 pm Youth Mass was a night of reunion, friendship, pizza, ice breakers and a talk about All Saints Day and All Souls day with a small prayer service for all of our deceased loved ones.

VOCATION OFFICE FOR THE DIOCESAN PRIESTHOOD
ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA

HEED THE CALL

All the parishes of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia are participating in CALLED BY NAME, a program of vocation awareness that begins this weekend. This program offers opportunity for us to pray for priestly vocations; to recognize gifts and potential for leadership and service in members of our parish; and encourage these members to share their gifts in priesthood. Perhaps you know a man (16yrs. of age or older) who would, in your opinion, have the qualities to become a priest. Please recommend this person by filling out the response card found in church. Next weekend, place the completed card in the collection baskets.

Attention ALL VETERANS!

This Monday, at 8:30 am, our school community is inviting all veterans to be recognized in a ceremony in our gym at St. Katharine of Siena parish. If you are a veteran, or know a veteran, please come join us at this wonderful ceremony. After the ceremony, you are welcome to join us for an assembly in the cafeteria for grades 5 - 8 from The Travis Manion Foundation. Contact us at 610-688-5451 if you plan to come or email btosti@sksschool.org. God Bless America and God Bless Our Soldiers!

CYO Basketball

St. Katharine's is currently looking for basketball coaches for our upcoming 2018 - 2019 season for all ages, including high school. Requirements and applications for coaching can be found under SKSCYO.com. We are also in need of a JV A (5th/6thgrade) girls and boys coach. Please forward any questions or application materials to Chet Walsh or Bob Higgins at wintersports@skscyo.com.

Men's Evening of Reflection November 12, 2018 from 6:30 pm - 8:30 pm Saint Katharine of Siena Church

Calling all men, especially those with an appetite for good food and great beer. This Monday evening, the parish will be hosting a Men's Evening of Reflection in the parish center. The evening will begin at 6:30 pm with Mass in the church, and will move to the parish center for a free dinner and beer at 7:00 pm. At 7:30 pm, Fr. Scott Reilly will deliver a spirited talk on being men of courage for Christ and our Church. If you've been looking for an opportunity to connect with more men in our parish, or if you're seeking a spiritual boost, you won't want to miss this night. We hope to see you men there.

St. Martin de Porres Pantry

Our sister parish, St. Martin de Porres, operates a food pantry for their parishioners. Many of these families rely on this facility for their daily needs. This Thanksgiving, we are holding a special drive to help replenish the pantry. Please bring non-perishable items to the 9:00 am Mass on Thanksgiving Day and we will transport them to SMDP. If you are unable to attend, but would like to contribute, items can be placed in the church library starting the weekend of November 17th and 18th. We thank you for your continued support of our sister parish!

St. Katharine's is happy to introduce a new opportunity for supporting your parish through online giving. We have partnered with Parish Giving to offer a simple, secure, and convenient means of contributing to St. Katharine's using your credit card or bank account.

To get started, scan the QR Code below or go to <http://sksparish.org/give> and follow the easy registration steps. If you need assistance enrolling or if you have questions, please contact Angela Kusterbeck, our parish business manager at 610-688-4584 or busmgr@sksparish.org.

Mercy Hospice Giving Tree

Next weekend, two trees will be decorated with red tags suggesting gifts for homeless women and children at Mercy Hospice. One tree will be at the St. Joseph's Shrine and the other one at the Lancaster Avenue church vestibule. The gifts, in gift bags with the red tags attached, must be returned to the St. Therese Shrine by Sunday, December 9th. Info: Kay and Jerry Lafferty, 610-687-4707.

Casseroles for Mercy Hospice

As we approach the Thanksgiving holiday, we realize how blessed we all are. With that spirit of gratitude, let us support the work of the staff at Mercy Hospice as they serve 100 homeless women and children with a hot meal every day.

In October, we delivered 50 casseroles - 19 made by the Wayne Rotary Club. The next deadline is Wednesday, November 14th. Pans and recipes for newcomers are located inside the Aberdeen Avenue door of the church. Any extra turkeys you purchase or receive, would be gratefully used for Thanksgiving dinner. Info: Kay and Jerry Lafferty, 610-687-4707.
