BLESSED ARE YOU!

This Sunday, we hear the "Sermon on the Mount" as presented in the Gospel of St. Luke. This great sermon, found in an even more expanded version in the Gospel of St. Matthew, provides us all with the foundation of our lived faith. Recognizing our poverty before God and hungering for union with the only One who can satisfy our deepest longing, we strive to follow the Way His Son, Jesus, taught us back to God.

All of us are called to follow this Way. And, we priests are called to help the people under our care along this Way. We strive to live Jesus' message faithfully every day. Even in retirement, many priests continue to serve; we are blessed to have Msgr. Carroll serve us with such dedication and love years after he retired as pastor of St. Hilary of Poitiers parish in Rydal.

Others, due to declining health, have withdrawn from active ministry but continue to offer prayerful support to everyone in our Archdiocese. These priests reside at Villa St. Joseph in Darby, Regina Coeli in Warminster, and other health care facilities and they need our prayers and support. And so, we join with all the parishes throughout the Archdiocese in taking up the annual Collection for the Care of Aging and Retired Priests. This is an opportunity for all of us to express our gratitude for the many blessings we have all received through their faithful ministry.

As you have been in the past, I encourage you to be generous this weekend in grateful recognition of the service these priests have offered you and your families. Please know that your kindness and generosity is remembered daily in their Masses, intentions and prayers. And, I ask that you continue to remember them in your prayers as well!

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Ministers of Hospitality

11:30 am Sunday Mass-Goers: We are seeking parishioners to serve as Ministers of Hospitality at this Mass in particular. Greeting, assigning offertory gift bearers, and helping with the collection are the main duties; not to mention serving the Lord and others! If you've celebrated your Confirmation, you're eligible! The Lord is knocking, will you answer? We hope so! Please contact Canice Treangen at 610-525-3494 or stkatharineofsienahospitality@gmail.com if you'd like to help---for one time, or many times! ## SKS SCHOOL NEWS

Dear SKS Parishioners,

Last week as a school community we celebrate Kindness Week. In celebration of Valentine's Day and to honor the generous and loving spirit of Jenna Burleigh, Michelle Heacock, Elizabeth Readie, and Mary Jones (loved ones of teachers: Mrs. Jayda Orsatti, Mr. David Heacock, Mrs. Jill D'Agostino, and Mrs. Katie Jones, respectively) each student has been given the name of a fellow student, similar to an Advent Angel. We've mixed grades, so many students had the name of someone in the grade above or below, all with the intention of creating a continued kind and loving community. It was a very special week for all. The faculty/staff was included, matched with another faculty member. The acts of kindness did not cost money and did not involve gifts or food treats. Each teacher was given a list of ideas to share with the students (see below), and we also shared the list at a school-wide assembly. We are hoping the acts become so prevalent and contagious that the actions continue even beyond this week.

Ways to Be Kind:

- Write a complimentary note,
- Draw a picture,
- Leave a joke,
- Create a collage,
- Write a poem, such as an acrostic using your buddy's name,
- Create a positive attribute chain,
- Write new lyrics about your buddy to a favorite song.
