Weekly A.A. meetings are held in St. Katharine's Parish Center on Friday nights at 8:00 pm.

Clothing Drive

Every second Sunday of the month, our parish provides a collection point for used clothing, housewares and furniture in good condition for a thrift shop in North Philadelphia. The thrift shop sells these items and distributes the proceeds to area churches to help them fund their mission outreach work. Please place your used clothing, housewares and furniture in good condition under the overhang of the Midland Avenue school entrance before 10:00 am on the second Sunday of every month. The next clothing drive is Sunday, July 14th.

Eucharistic Adoration takes place at St. Katharine's every Monday from the end of the 8:00 am Mass until Benediction which starts at 4:30 pm and lasts until around 4:45 pm. Spend some quiet time with the Lord. Read the divine words of Our Lord Jesus, meditate, pray or just sit quietly and listen to His words to you. You will leave the church happy and refreshed. Come and visit for as few or as many minutes as you have. You won't be sorry. This is the best gift that you could ever give yourself.

June 30, 2019

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I enthusiastically welcome your support of our annual archdiocesan collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), which will soon commemorate 50 years of concretely demonstrating the Church's solidarity with disadvantaged members of our communities.

In Philadelphia and other urban areas of our region, there is a growing gap between those who are financially secure and those who are not, including middle class families as well as the poor. U.S. Census data in 2018 show that Philadelphia's poverty rate has remained at 26% since 2013, while the national average is half that, ranking Philadelphia as the poorest of the country's 10 major cities. The median income in our four suburban counties is double that of families in Philadelphia, where many households have incomes below $18,450 for a family of three, and nearly all of those households include children, the frail elderly, and the disabled. Nearly one in four Philadelphia residents suffers from food insecurity. These brothers and sisters of ours are victims of what some have called "an unnatural disaster" that is both preventable and able to be rectified by the collective efforts of those who care to make a difference.

Across our country today, more than 46 million people are living in poverty, and one third of that number are children. Their challenges stem from a cycle of systemic poverty that often prevents them from realizing their God-given promise and vocation in life. While some people's situations may have resulted from their own poor decisions, the majority have simply not had the opportunities or the blessings of support and good example to achieve economic security or household stability. Keep in mind that vast majority of the poor want a better future for themselves, and most especially for their children. As Catholics we are called to stand with them and be their advocates as they strive to achieve living conditions worthy of their God-given human dignity. That is why your support of CCHD is so vital, providing funding for local community organizations that work with those living on the margins to facilitate their own efforts to overcome the causes of their poverty.

Pope Francis called our attention to the struggles of the poor in his message for the second World Day of the Poor: "God's salvation is a hand held out to the poor, a hand that welcomes, protects and enables them to experience the friendship they need....Each individual Christian and every community is called to be an instrument of God for the liberation and promotion of the poor, and for enabling them to be fully part of society. This demands that we be docile and attentive to the cry of the poor and to come to their aid." The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops holds an annual CCHD collection to give us a way to be a hand of friendship held out to the poor. In the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, the CCHD collection will occur at Masses on the weekend of July 6-7. Your contribution can help your neighbors to finally break free of poverty and achieve a better future for themselves and their families. May God bless you for your generous response to this year's CCHD appeal.

Gratefully and with best wishes in Jesus Christ,

Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M., Cap
Archbishop of Philadelphia.

Presentation: What Can We Do? The Role of the Laity in a Time of Crisis

As the Church undergoes this period of profound crisis, many of us feel helpless as we watch a drama unfold that we can do nothing about. But the truth is that we are not powerless. The history of the Church tells us that lay people have a role to play in the Church's times of turmoil. Join us for an evening of reflection on the mission of the laity in times of ecclesial crisis and learn what you can do to cooperate with Christ's action to purify and heal His Church. Speaker: Meghan Cokeley, Director, Office for the New Evangelization, Archdiocese of Philadelphia. No charge to attend. Please RSVP at phillyevang.org/events. Date/time options for this talk:

- * Tues, Sept 17 at 7 PM, St. Stanislaus, Lansdale
- * Mon, Oct 7 at 7 PM, St. Andrew Olde Church, Newtown
