Rosary for an End to the Coronavirus

As we continue to struggle through the ongoing coronavirus pandemic, one of our parishioners, Mary Ann Mahoney, is leading a rosary at 7:00pm in church every Tuesday. All are encouraged to come and pray to our Blessed Mother for her intercession to her Son, Our Lord, that he may have mercy on us during these challenging times!

Clothing Collection

Second Mile updated their whole process of how they will accept donations. Unfortunately, they will no longer pick up donations at our parish.

They greatly appreciate all that St. Katharine's has done for them over the years, and they cannot thank us enough.

They are still picking up individual donations from residences. These can be scheduled by calling 215-662-1663.

YOUTH GROUP

Good friends Grace Twohig, Patrick Kaper, Baudi Gallino and Luigi Giaconucci led the music at the college blessing 9:30 am mass. These college sophomores did a wonderful job leading our parish through prayer and worship.

If your college student was not able to attend the mass and you would like your young adult to receive the prayer card and prayer bracelet please email me at youthministry@sksparish.org.

PARISH ACTIVITIES

St. Martin de Porres Collection

Every year we collect school supplies for the students at our sister parish, St. Martin de Porres, located at 23rd and W. Lehigh Streets in North Philadelphia. Our generosity in years past has helped the 435 children in grades PK-8th start off their year right with new supplies and backpacks! It's made a big difference and now the need is even greater with the challenges of the pandemic. This year, the school has a new principal, Mrs. Kelly Lanza, and it will be online for 30 days before re-opening. Please drop off items from Saturday, August 15th to 1:00pm on Sunday, August 30th at the parish library. The supplies most needed are notebooks (think copy books, not spiral), loose leaf paper, pencils, small hand-held sharpeners, black pens (for older students), folders (2 pockets), construction paper, crayons, colored markers, colored pencils, glue sticks, scissors (small hands), scissors (larger hands), and backpacks. Hand sanitizer and Clorox wipes are also in great demand for the reopening. We'll be sharing photos of the collection after the delivery. Any questions, please contact me at mariamcarrillo@icloud.com. Thank you very much for your generosity!

WOMEN OF HOPE

Women of Hope is a Catholic Services homeless shelter for young women in Philadelphia. They are currently in need of some basic new clothing for the women who come off the streets to shower and get a meal. Some of the new clothing the women need are: women's t-shirts, leggings, and underwear in all sizes. These items can be dropped off in the Parish Library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 60-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

MERCY HOSPICE ACCEPTING CASSEROLES AND GROCERIES

Thank you for continuing to support Mercy Hospice during this challenging time. Many thanks to those parishioners who have been donating casseroles to feed the women and children at the shelter. We are currently accepting frozen casseroles AND groceries. If you are making a casserole, recipes, directions, and pans are located at the Aberdeen Avenue door of the church. As Mercy Hospice is feeding around 40 women and children, we ask that you follow the recipe directions which will provide them with the correct portions, as the Mercy Hospice kitchen operates best with the proper sized casseroles. Unfortunately, they are not able to accept frozen miscellaneous food items such as soups, sauces, or leftovers.

If you would like to donate groceries, some much needed items include: Coffee, Creamer, Cake Mixes, Pancake Mix, Granola Bars, Pop Tarts, Peanut Butter and Jelly. These items can be dropped off in the Parish Library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 60-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

THE WINDOWS OF
ST. KATHARINE OF SIENA CHURCH
PART 4

After a week's break to give you some background on the Marianists - our Missionary Cooperative group this year - I'd like to return to continue offering explanations of the large stained glass windows in our church; I hope you're finding them helpful. Allow me now to offer some explanation of the fourth window. Remember, we are beginning in the back of the church on the right (west) side as you enter from Lancaster Avenue. As I mentioned two weeks ago, this window provides a transition between the Old Testament and New Testament. Whereas the windows we have examined so far present important people and events from before time began through Salvation History during the time of the Old Testament, all of the windows on the east side of the church depict the life of Christ and other people of the New Testament down to the Church today.

Back to the fourth window on the west side of the church. The first panel of this window represents the genealogic tree of Jesus – the Jesse tree. Jesse was the father of King David. As we read in Isaiah 11:1: “a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom.” The figures sprouting from the tree represent the ancestors of Jesus. Jesse is seated at the base of the tree and Jesus, depicted in royal attire, stands at the top. The rose at his waist recalls the words of the Christmas carol: “Lo, how a rose e'er blooming from Jesse's stem has sprung.” St. Joseph stands to the right of Jesus carrying a rod from which an almond flower blossoms. Blooming at the end of January in the Middle East, the almond is a symbol of new life. As the Hebrew word for almond is similar in sound to the word for “watching”, it was used as a symbol for those who watched, or guarded. David is next to Jesus on his left, hand raised to signify Jesus as a descendant of the house of David.

The center panel was inspired by the ecumenism proceeding from Vatican Council II and it helps us recognize that Jesus came to save all people. A variety of symbols represent various religions, reflecting God's revelation in some way through all religions. The upper section depicts the Tree of Life, whose roots are surrounded by the flames of the fiery sword that guards it; it is topped by a bouquet of roses blooming in heaven. The vortex that surrounds the tree trunk symbolizes the center of the universe and the sun is a common symbol of life – and sometimes, even a god – in a number of religions. The ladder, reminiscent of Jacob's ladder in the Old Testament, symbolizes every person's yearning to ascend to God. The egg symbolizes the new life created by God. The ankh is an ancient Egyptian symbol for life, while the crescent moon, used by Islam, symbolizes the birth of the universe. Flowing water and a snake, symbols found in many world religions, both speak of new life. The maze of circles within the square represents the mandala, which Hindus and Buddhists use as a graphic symbol for the universe.

The third panel presents Joseph and John the Baptist. Joseph holds a hammer and a carpenter's square is at his feet; both identify him as a carpenter. The lantern next to his right foot is a medieval representation of his vigilance over the Holy Family. You will also find, once again, the almond flower blooming from a rod; another sign of his watchfulness. The palm tree and cedar in the background are references to Psalms 92:13: “The just shall flourish like the palm tree, shall grow like a cedar of Lebanon.”

Below the trees, a wing of an angel and the black sky filled with the moon and stars above a recumbent Joseph recalls his dream when an angel told him to take Mary and the child to Egypt to avoid the slaughter of the holy innocents of Bethlehem planned by Herod (cf. Matthew 1:20, 2:13). In the lower section of this panel, you find John the Baptist with the shell from which he poured the water of baptism on Jesus at his left shoulder, the cactus symbolizing his years of living in the desert to his right, and the headsman's axe, which ended his life, to his left. The banner he holds symbolizes his proclamation, “Behold! The Lamb of God.” In the lower left is the scene of the visitation of Mary to Elizabeth, mother of John the Baptist, after she heard that her cousin was with child in her old age. The Holy Spirit hovers nearby signifying God's hand at work in the birth of their two sons.

Fourth Window” Transition from the Old Testament to the New Testament
