Rosary for an End to the Coronavirus

As we continue to struggle through the ongoing coronavirus pandemic, one of our parishioners, Mary Ann Mahoney, is leading a rosary at 7:00pm in church every Tuesday. All are encouraged to come and pray to our Blessed Mother for her intercession to her Son, Our Lord, that he may have mercy on us during these challenging times!

Clothing Collection

Second Mile updated their whole process of how they will accept donations. Unfortunately, they will no longer pick up donations at our parish.

They greatly appreciate all that St. Katharine's has done for them over the years, and they cannot thank us enough.

They are still picking up individual donations from residences. These can be scheduled by calling 215-662-1663.

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Are you stretched and would like a way to refuel and be refreshed while making authentic connections with other women? Would you like to have a better understanding of your faith and learn more about God?

Walking with Purpose (WWP), a Catholic Bible Study, aims to bring women to a closer relationship with Christ. Personal study and small group discussions at WWP each week link our everyday challenges with the solutions given to us through the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church.

Come join our group of over 50 women for the 6th year of Walking with Purpose at SKS!

We are meeting in person following mask wearing and social distancing guidelines on Tuesdays from 9:15 – 11:00 am. Zoom meetings will also be held on Tuesdays during the day and in the evening, September through April. Our first meeting is Tuesday, September 22nd. The Zoom times are yet to be determined.

Interested in learning more? Contact us with questions or to register contact Colleen Brady at ncbrady@comcast.net or 610-637-2569 or Maureen Reilly at cmkmjr@yahoo.com or 610-745-6320. There is no program cost this year. The only cost is the OPENING YOUR HEART study guide which is $40 and may be purchased at www.walkingwithpurpose.com.

MERCY HOSPICE ACCEPTING CASSEROLES AND GROCERIES

Mercy Hospice is a community grounded in faith whose mission is to "help women experiencing homelessness find opportunities for new beginnings". By donating just one casserole a month or some groceries, we can provide hot meals for the women and children who reside at Mercy Hospice. Last month we delivered 25 frozen casseroles and lots of groceries. If you are making a casserole, recipes, directions, and pans are located at the Aberdeen Avenue door of the church.

Some much needed items include: Coffee, Creamer, Cake Mixes, Pancake Mix, Granola Bars, Pop Tarts, Peanut Butter and Jelly. These items can be dropped off in the Parish Library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

WOMEN OF HOPE

Women of Hope is a Catholic Services homeless shelter for young women in Philadelphia. They are currently in need of some basic new clothing for the women who come off the streets to shower and get a meal. Some of the new clothing the women need are: women's t-shirts, shorts, leggings, socks, and underwear in all sizes. With so many end of summer sales if you would like some very reasonable ideas here a few links. Varied sizes and colors are appreciated.

St. Martin de Porres Collection

Every year we collect school supplies for the students at our sister parish, St. Martin de Porres, located at 23rd and W. Lehigh Streets in North Philadelphia. Our generosity in years past has helped the 435 children in grades PK-8th start off their year right with new supplies and backpacks! It's made a big difference and now the need is even greater with the challenges of the pandemic. Please drop off items until Sunday, August 30th at the parish library. We'll be sharing photos of the collection after the delivery. Any questions, please contact me at mariamcarrillo@icloud.com. Thank you very much for your generosity!

THE WINDOWS OF ST. KATHARINE OF SIENA CHURCH PART 6

I hope you're continuing to enjoy this study of the stained glass windows of our church; I find them to be both beautiful and inspirational! Last week, we examined the first of the windows on the east side of the nave. These windows, beginning with the one closest to the altar, depict some of the important events surrounding the life, death, resurrection and ascension of our Lord as well as the birth of the Church. They end with a panel that represents the Church today, as I will explain in a few weeks.

Meanwhile, today let us examine the second window on the east side; it presents important moments in our Lord's public life. The first panel on the right depicts the scene of his baptism by John the Baptist with the waters of the Jordan River flowing around them. The Holy Spirit in the form of a dove descends upon Jesus. This scene recalls the important event found in all three synoptic gospels when a voice from heaven is heard to say, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased" (Mt 3:17). The Star of David in the upper right hand corner signifies our Lord's Davidic lineage.

In the center panel, you see Jesus changing water into wine at the marriage feast of Cana, his first public miraculous sign. Notice the rose, once again representing Mary who called the dilemma of the newly married couple to Jesus' attention and instructed the servants to "do whatever he tells you." The interlocking rings at the top of the panel symbolize marriage while the cross behind them links marriage to the bond of Christ to his bride, the Church (cf. Ephesians 5:25ff). The house with the seven pillars recalls the prophetic verses found in Proverbs 9:1,5: "Wisdom has built her house, she has set up her seven columns; ...Come, eat of my food, and drink of the wine I have mixed!" The changing of water into wine and the miraculous multiplication of the loaves and fishes, represented in the bottom portion of the window, anticipate the institution of the Eucharist.

The left panel portrays the transfiguration of Jesus on the mountain with his face as dazzling as the sun and his clothes as radiant as light (cf. Luke 9:28). Moses – holding the Ten Commandments, representing the Law – and Elijah are present below him; notice the mountain peak behind them. The ladder that extends from the middle panel through this one once again symbolizes the earthly realm reaching up to the heavenly realm.

You will recall that I mentioned last week that you will find several references to the Old Testament throughout these windows that depict the life of Christ. We saw the first example of this in the first panel of the first window, with the burning bush at the bottom representing God's presence, recalling Moses' encounter with God in Midian (cf. Exodus 3:1ff). Just as Moses led God's people to the Promised Land, so Jesus leads all people to the true Promised Land – heaven. This second panel includes more of these Old Testament references: the Star of David, the house with seven pillars, Elijah and Moses with the transfigured Jesus and Jacob's ladder. These references make it clear that Jesus is, indeed, the fulfillment of the Old Covenant, offered in various ways throughout the Old Testament, as he establishes a New Covenant at the Last Supper and on the cross. And, the colorful band that emanates from the burning bush at the bottom of the first window on the east side continues to swirl through this second window. As I mentioned last week, this band represents God's saving action down through the ages – from Old Testament times to New Testament times and even until today.

The next window presents the death, resurrection and ascension of our Lord. Once again, the window is filled with powerful symbolism; I'll explain it all in upcoming weeks – see you then!
