Rosary for an End to the Coronavirus

As we continue to struggle through the ongoing coronavirus pandemic, one of our parishioners, Mary Ann Mahoney, has offered to lead a rosary at 7:00pm in church every Tuesday. All are encouraged to come and pray to our Blessed Mother for her intercession to her Son, Our Lord, that he may have mercy on us during these challenging times!

Clothing Collection

Second Mile updated their whole process of how they will accept donations. Unfortunately, they will no longer pick up donations at our parish.

They greatly appreciate all that St. Katharine's has done for them over the years, and they cannot thank us enough.

They are still picking up individual donations from residences. These can be scheduled by calling 215-662-1663.

From the desk of Monsignor Brouwers

ORDER OF THE FRIAR SERVANTS OF MARY

“Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you” (Mt 28:19-20) we hear Lord command his disciples at the end of Matthew’s Gospel. As Jesus came to fulfill the Father’s will for him, he also gives a very simple and straightforward command to all those who would follow him. He had been sent by the Father to save us and he established the Church to announce this good news to the ends of the earth, giving the Holy Spirit to guide her through the ages. And, from that time on, we have recognized our missionary mandate – to make disciples of all nations – to be our primary task; every other work we do flows from it. In his recent address to the Pontifical Mission Societies, our Holy Father, Pope Francis, once again offered some very insightful reflections on the essential mission of the Church:

The Church is missionary by nature; otherwise, she would no longer be the Church of Christ, but one group among many others that soon end up serving their purpose and passing away. So it is important to ask ourselves certain questions about our Christian identity and our responsibility as believers in a world marked by confusion, disappointment and frustration, and torn by numerous fratricidal wars that unjustly target the innocent. What is the basis of our mission? What is the heart of our mission? What are the essential approaches we need to take in carrying out our mission?

The Church’s mission, directed to all men and women of good will, is based on the transformative power of the Gospel. The Gospel is Good News filled with contagious joy, for it contains and offers new life: the life of the Risen Christ who, by bestowing his life-giving Spirit, becomes for us the Way, the Truth and the Life (cf. Jn 14:6). He is the Way who invites us to follow him with confidence and courage. In following Jesus as our Way, we experience Truth and receive his Life, which is fullness of communion with God the Father in the power of the Holy Spirit. That life sets us free from every kind of selfishness, and is a source of creativity in love.

God the Father desires this existential transformation of his sons and daughters, a transformation that finds expression in worship in spirit and truth (cf. Jn 4:23-24), through a life guided by the Holy Spirit in imitation of Jesus the Son to the glory of God the Father. “The glory of God is the living man” (Irenaeus, Adversus Haereses IV, 20, 7). The preaching of the Gospel thus becomes a vital and effective word that accomplishes what it proclaims (cf. Is 55:10-11): Jesus Christ, who constantly takes flesh in every human situation (cf. Jn 1:14).

The Church’s mission, then, is not to spread a religious ideology, much less to propose a lofty ethical teaching. Many movements throughout the world inspire high ideals or ways to live a meaningful life. Through the mission of the Church, Jesus Christ himself continues to evangelize and act; her mission thus makes present in history the kairos, the favorable time of salvation. Through the proclamation of the Gospel, the risen Jesus becomes our contemporary, so that those who welcome him with faith and love can experience the transforming power of his Spirit, who makes humanity and creation fruitful, even as the rain does with the earth. “His resurrection is not an event of the past; it contains a vital power which has permeated this world. Where all seems to be dead, signs of the resurrection suddenly spring up. It is an irresistible force” (Evangelii Gaudium, 276).

Let us never forget that “being Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a Person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction” (Benedict XVI, Deus Caritas Est, 1). The Gospel is a Person who continually offers himself and constantly invites those who receive him with humble and religious faith to share his life by an effective participation in the paschal mystery of his death and resurrection. Through Baptism, the Gospel becomes a source of new life, freed of the dominion of sin, enlightened and transformed by the Holy Spirit. Through Confirmation, it becomes a fortifying anointing that, through the same Spirit, points out new ways and strategies for witness and accompaniment. Through the Eucharist, it becomes food for new life, a “medicine of immortality” (Ignatius of Antioch, Ad Ephesios, 20, 2).

The world vitally needs the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Through the Church, Christ continues his mission as the Good Samaritan, caring for the bleeding wounds of humanity, and as Good Shepherd, constantly seeking out those who wander along winding paths that lead nowhere. (Pope Francis World Mission Day Address)

Since this mission of the Church – to spread the Gospel and make disciples of all nations – is so important, every diocese in the world has a mission office to promote this essential mission awareness among the faithful. I had the privilege of being the director of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia Office for the Propagation of the Faith (the official name of the mission office) for four years. And, since I was born in Indonesia (a country with 263 million inhabitants - making it the fourth most populous country in the world - that is still a missionary country; only 3.5% of the total population is Catholic), and have visited many missionary countries around the world, it was a ministry that was – and remains – very close to my heart. When we experience for ourselves the difference our faith makes in the everyday lives of people, we are renewed in our response to the missionary mandate our Lord left us because we want everyone to benefit from the Good News of Salvation and the fullness of God's love!

Every year, every parish in the Archdiocese is invited to respond to this universal missionary call in a variety of ways. On the second-to-the-last Sunday of October, we join with the universal Church in observing Mission Sunday. The collection taken up on Mission Sunday benefits all of the missionary dioceses throughout the world, including the 13 missionary dioceses in the U.S.A.

Additionally, once a year, we participate in the Missionary Cooperative, through which particular missionary organizations visit parishes and share their missionary work with them. This allows each parish to learn a little more about the missionary ministry of a specific missionary organization. And, to assure that all missionary organizations that want to participate are able to do so, the Archdiocesan mission office assigns missionary organizations on a rotation basis throughout the Archdiocese.

This year, we are privileged to have Fr. Timothy Kenney, SM, Assistant for Religious Life for the Marianist Province of the US, join us this weekend to speak of the work of the Society of Mary, also known as the Marianists. This is an international Roman Catholic religious congregation of brothers and priests. Founded by Blessed William Chaminade in France in 1817, it is now an international congregation. Marianists have been present in the United States since arriving in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1849. About 270 members of the Province of the United States serve in ministries from Honolulu to Puerto Rico, and in Eastern Africa, India, Ireland and Mexico. The Marianists sponsor universities and secondary schools as well as parishes and retreat centers. They work in spiritual formation, social justice and environmental preservation. Marianist priests and brothers live and minister as equals, modeling their lives after Mary, the mother of Jesus. As part of a wider Marianist Family that includes Marianist Sisters and committed lay men and women, they are dedicated to forming people and communities of faith through education, parish work, social justice, the arts, and other ministries.

I encourage everyone to participate this weekend through prayer and your usual, very generous financial support. Remember what Jeanne Jugan (one of the founders of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith) said - "Some give to the missions by going and some go to the missions by giving" - and please be as generous as you can to this important ministry! And, keep Fr. Kenney and all missionaries in your daily prayers as they spread the Good News of God's love around the world!

YOUTH GROUP

There will be a blessing for our college students at all the Masses this weekend. Please see Steph Twohig, our Youth Minister, at the end of Mass for your little gift. Wherever your journey takes you, know you are loved by God and this St. Katharine's community.

Thank you again to all the St. Katharine parishioners who helped serve the homeless these past couple of months. We will be taking a break for the month of August, but we will keep you posted on our next mission.

PARISH ACTIVITIES

MERCY HOSPICE ACCEPTING CASSEROLES AND GROCERIES

Thank you for continuing to support Mercy Hospice during this challenging time. Many thanks to those parishioners who have been donating casseroles to feed the women and children at the shelter. We are currently accepting frozen casseroles AND groceries. If you are making a casserole, recipes, directions, and pans are located at the Aberdeen Avenue door of the church. As Mercy Hospice is feeding around 40 women and children, we ask that you follow the recipe directions which will provide them with the correct portions, as the Mercy Hospice kitchen operates best with the proper sized casseroles. Unfortunately, they are not able to accept frozen miscellaneous food items such as soups, sauces, or leftovers.

If you would like to donate groceries, some much needed items include: Coffee, Creamer, Cake Mixes, Pancake Mix, Granola Bars, Pop Tarts, Peanut Butter and Jelly. These items can be dropped off in the Parish Library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 60-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

WOMEN OF HOPE

Women of Hope is a Catholic Services homeless shelter for young women in Philadelphia. They are currently in need of some basic new clothing for the women who come off the streets to shower and get a meal. Some of the new clothing the women need are: women's t-shirts, leggings, and underwear in all sizes. These items can be dropped off in the Parish Library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 60-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.
