WELCOME ARCHBISHOP NELSON J. PÉREZ – TAKE TWO

You may recall back in early March – before the coronavirus pandemic turned our world upside down – that our new Archbishop, Nelson J. Pérez, had asked to celebrate a special Mass here for all of the 21 parishes of Deanery 2; that was scheduled for Monday, 30 March. Of course, that was canceled and there are no plans, at this time, to re-schedule it. But, Abp. Pérez still wants to travel throughout the archdiocese and meet his new flock. So, as I was leaving our most recent Council of Priests meeting (I'm on the Council of Priests as one of the 12 deans in the archdiocese), he asked me to schedule a time for him to come and celebrate a Sunday Mass here, just for our parish. After checking our calendars, we agreed on the 9:30am Mass on Sunday, 25 October; that's only two weeks away!

I'm sure you share my delight in his desire to celebrate Mass with us. At the same time, I hope you also understand the logistical challenge involved in such a visit since our church can only accommodate 200 – 250 people, due to the social distancing limitations we need to observe at this time. So, I've had extensive discussions about this with our parish staff, the Parish Pastoral Council and the Parish Worship Committee to come up with the best plan. We would like everyone who wants to attend to be able to do so but we are severely limited due to the current restrictions. The plan we've developed is as follows. Our church will open at 9:00am that morning and we will have parishioners inside each entrance to coordinate seating until the church is filled. Once the church is at capacity, parishioners will be directed to our gym, where additional seating will be provided and the Mass will be live streamed onto monitors. For those who are, for any reason, unable to attend in person, we will, of course, live stream the Mass as we usually do every Sunday. I hope you understand the situation and are satisfied with this plan; it's the best we could come up with after much discussion!

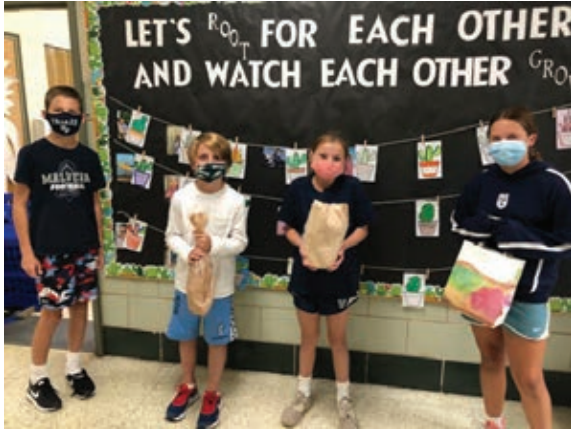

As you have probably already learned, Archbishop Pérez is delighted to return home to Philadelphia and is eager to get to know our archdiocese even better. Although Archbishop Pérez is Cuban (he likes to say that he was packaged in Cuba and delivered in the USA; his mother conceived him in Havana and gave birth in Miami), and lived in Florida and New Jersey while he was growing up, he studied for the priesthood here at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary. He then spent 13 years in ministry here in this archdiocese, both in parish life (St. Ambrose and St. Williams Churches in Philadelphia and St. Agnes Church, West Chester), and in administration, first as the assistant director of the archdiocesan Office for Hispanic Catholics and then the founding director of the Catholic Institute for Evangelization. It was while he was in these two offices that I got to know him. During those same years, I was the director of the archdiocesan Family Life Office and then the Office for the Propagation of the Faith. I found him a pleasure to work with; he is a very friendly, engaging, down-to-earth, practical, can-do person. And, as the archbishop has said many times, "Once a Philadelphia priest, always a Philadelphia priest!"

One of Abp. Pérez' favorite sayings is: "Never underestimate the power of the Holy Spirit working in you, through you and despite you." This saying is so important to him that he used it at the press conference when his appointment was made public and he had the entire congregation repeat it after him at his installation Mass. I think it's a powerful message that we should all hear and take to heart. Our Lord, Jesus, promised the Holy Spirit when he was with his disciples at the Last Supper and the Holy Spirit continues to be very present in our Church. We receive the Holy Spirit at our baptism and are strengthened in the Holy Spirit at our confirmation. And, we should never underestimate his power working in our lives, even despite us – especially during these challenging times. Let us join with our new archbishop in praying that we will all be open to the working of the Holy Spirit as Abp. Pérez begins to shepherd us.

I hope to see you at this special Mass in two weeks!

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Cabrini University Food Cupboard

Cabrini University is grateful for your donations to the Cabrini Food Cupboard. The Cabrini Cupboard is for any student who is having difficulty affording groceries or accessing sufficient food to eat every day and feels that it might affect their performance in the classroom.

Single serve items/meals that come in a container and can be heated up or just add water to seem to be the best donations. Food items that are currently needed include the following: Cup O'Noodles, Hormel meals that are "heat up and go", Spaghetti O's, Mac & Cheese cups, Pop Tarts, Snack Crackers, Single Serve Cookies, Fruit Cups, and Drinks. Toiletries such as Shampoo, Conditioner, Deodorant, and feminine hygiene products are also needed.

These items can be dropped off in the Parish Library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

WOMEN OF HOPE

Women of Hope is a Catholic Services homeless shelter for young women in Philadelphia. We are currently collecting new towels, washcloths, and socks which are needed for the women who come off the streets to get a hot shower. These items can be dropped off in the Parish Library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

Mercy Hospice Casseroles and Groceries

Thank you for your continued donations of frozen casseroles that feed the women and children at Mercy Hospice. The staff and the residents are extremely grateful for your generosity. If you are making a casserole, the recipes, directions, and pans are located at the Aberdeen Avenue door of the church. If you would like to buy a frozen casserole, the family size frozen dinners of Stouffers lasagna, Macaroni and Cheese, scalloped potatoes or any other family size variety are appreciated.

No time to cook? Some much needed grocery items include: Coffee, Creamer, Cake Mixes, Brownie Mix, Pancake Mix, Granola Bars, Pop Tarts, Peanut Butter and Jelly. These items can be dropped off in the Parish Library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

Walking with Purpose

Are you stretched and would like a way to refuel and be refreshed while making authentic connections with other women? Would you like to have a better understanding of your faith and learn more about God?

Walking with Purpose (WWP), a Catholic Bible Study, aims to bring women to a closer relationship with Christ. Personal study and small group discussions at WWP each week link our everyday challenges with the solutions given to us through the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church.

Come join our group of over 50 women for the 6th year of Walking with Purpose at SKS!

We are meeting in person following mask wearing and social distancing guidelines on Tuesdays from 9:15 – 11:00 am. Zoom meetings will also be held on Tuesday mornings, 9:15am to 10:15am and Tuesday Evenings from 7:30pm to 8:30pm. Please join us.

Interested in learning more? Contact us with questions or to register contact Colleen Brady at ncbrady@comcast.net or 610-637-2569 or Maureen Reilly at cmkmjr@yahoo.com or 610-745-6320. There is no program cost this year. The only cost is the OPENING YOUR HEART study guide which is $40 and may be purchased at www.walkingwithpurpose.com.

Rosary for an End to the Coronavirus

As we continue to struggle through the ongoing coronavirus pandemic, one of our parishioners, Mary Ann Mahoney, is leading a rosary at 7:00pm in church every Tuesday. All are encouraged to come and pray to our Blessed Mother for her intercession to her Son, Our Lord, that he may have mercy on us during these challenging times!

Clothing Collection

Second Mile updated their whole process of how they will accept donations. Unfortunately, they will no longer pick up donations at our parish.

They greatly appreciate all that St. Katharine's has done for them over the years, and they cannot thank us enough.

They are still picking up individual donations from residences. These can be scheduled by calling 215-662-1663.

SSJ Annual Chance Drive

Due to the pandemic, to help keep everyone safe and healthy, we will only be selling chances online this year. No in person sales! No one has to touch any paper, pens or money.

The chances are $5.00 each, or a "book" of 5 chances for $20. Grand Prize: $10,000 and 5 Prizes of $500. The virtual drawing will take place on December 6th at 1:00pm and we will be announcing the winners on our social media platform.

Visit our Chance Drive page at <https://ssjphila.networkforgood.com/events/21048-chance-drive-2020> or the Sisters of Saint Joseph events page at <https://www.ssjphila.org/home/support-our-mission/fundraising-events/>.
