MISSION SUNDAY IN PREPARATION FOR STEWARDSHIP SUNDAY

"Go, make disciples of all nations...teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you" (Mt 28:19). After Jesus overcame death by his Resurrection, he did not just return to heaven to sit at the right of the Father. Before ascending to the Father, he commissioned those who had come to believe in him to make disciples, that is, others who would come to believe in the one, true God and his son, Jesus, who came to save us. That is the ongoing mission of the Church; we are the blessed beneficiaries of this missionary outreach down through the ages. And we, in turn, are commissioned to continue this mission both here in our own neighborhood and around the world. So, today, we join with the universal Church in rededicating ourselves to this essential work of the Church, responding to this year's theme taken from the prophet Isaiah: Here am I, send me."

Another important aspect of mission is stewardship. Stewardship is what you do after you say "I believe!" If you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God who, by the power of the Holy Spirit, became the son of Mary to show us God's love in person, who died and rose to life to offer us new life, then you are called to stewardship, that is, responding to God's call with a generous heart. Jesus taught us about God and God's Kingdom. He taught us how to pray and worship God. He taught that the most important commandments were to love God and love our neighbor. And, he showed us - by his own actions - what he meant. He worshiped in the Temple. He gathered a community around him and shared God's love with them. He fed the hungry and cured the sick. He gave of his treasure to care for the poor. He sacrificed himself, day in and day out, for the good of the people around him. He gave himself to us at the Last Supper and then he sacrificed himself on the cross for us and all of humanity, from the beginning of time until the end of the age. In all of these ways, he, who, as God, shared with the Father in creating the universe, as a man was a steward, using his time, talent and treasure to introduce and build the Kingdom of God in our midst.

And then, having completed his mission, as he prepared to return to the right hand of God, his heavenly Father, he commanded his disciples to "go make disciples of all nations." As I noted above, his command is given to us, as well. We are all called by name, at our baptism, to participate in the mission of the Church, which is essentially building God's kingdom here on earth as we prepare to go to his kingdom in heaven. And, in every generation, we need to invite people to share in this call. Today, Mission Sunday, we recognize this call that we receive at our baptism. But, stewardship focuses us on this call every day. Once we admit that everything we have is a gift from God, given to us not for our own benefit alone but to share generously with those around us, we seek to find opportunities to share our time, treasure and talent.

You are being called to live out your faith, using your time and talent for the building up of our parish - God's kingdom in our midst - through both worship of God and love of neighbor, especially in these challenging times. Whether it's lecturing or singing in the choir, bringing Holy Communion to the homebound or preparing casseroles for Mercy Hospice or frozen dinners for Aid for Friends, helping in a wide variety of ways at our school or in our PREP, offering your expertise on our Pastoral Council or Finance Council, getting involved in CYO or our outreach to our sister parish, St. Martin de Porres or in any of our parish social programs and activities, there are lots of ways for all of our parishioners to use their time and talent for the good of our faith community.

We are also called to share our treasure. Many of you do so and, in the name of your fellow parishioners and all of the other archdiocesan and worldwide institutions you support with your generosity, I thank you. As you will see on the brochure that will accompany the Stewardship Appeal that is being sent to each parish household, the cumulative amount given to support the parish last year was approximately $3.5 million. This was a significant increase from last year, primarily due to your very generous response to our initial Stewardship Appeal and a very successful Leap for SKS, our first annual fundraising initiative by our newly-formed school's Board of Limited Jurisdiction. In addition, income from interest and investments totaled approximately $274,000. As the brochure shows, we also received $530,810 through the Paycheck Protection Program. This PPP allowed us to operate in the black last year; otherwise, we would have had a slight deficit of $10,000. We strive to operate in the black every year so I invite you to prayerfully review how you can increase the contribution of your treasure.

Many parishioners use their weekly envelopes to make their contributions. I'm grateful to those of you who have brought them to church or mailed them to the rectory as we continue to operate during this pandemic. And a growing number of you are using electronic fund transfers. About 290 families currently do so – that's almost double the number at this time last year. Channeling your contributions through an EFT allows you to support your parish even when you're not able to join us for worship and provides your parish with a more reliable source of income. It's really easy to sign up for electronic giving. Simply go to our website and click on the Give to SKS box. You will be directed to Parish Giving, a company that is used by dozens of parishes throughout our Archdiocese. Parish Giving allows you more control over your contributions, including the ease of giving with your credit card as well as a bank account. You can also see how to sign up below.

In the name of your fellow parishioners, I want to thank you for your continued generosity in sharing your time, talent and treasure here in the parish. And, especially this weekend, I thank you for your generous support of the missionary work of the Church. May God bless you as you practice good stewardship in your daily lives!

"As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Pt 4:10).

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Cabrini University Food Cupboard

Cabrini University is grateful for your donations to the Cabrini Food Cupboard. The Cabrini Cupboard is for any student who is having difficulty affording groceries or accessing sufficient food to eat every day and feels that it might affect their performance in the classroom.

Single serve items/meals that come in a container and can be heated up or just add water to seem to be the best donations. Food items that are currently needed include the following: Cup O'Noodles, Hormel meals that are "heat up and go", Spaghetti O's, Mac & Cheese cups, Pop Tarts, Snack Crackers, Single Serve Cookies, Fruit Cups, and Drinks. Toiletries such as Shampoo, Conditioner, Deodorant, and feminine hygiene products are also needed.

These items can be dropped off in the Parish Library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

WOMEN OF HOPE

Women of Hope is a Catholic Services homeless shelter for young women in Philadelphia. We are currently collecting new towels, washcloths, and socks which are needed for the women who come off the streets to get a hot shower. These items can be dropped off in the Parish Library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

Mercy Hospice Casseroles and Groceries

Thank you for your continued donations of frozen casseroles that feed the women and children at Mercy Hospice. The staff and the residents are extremely grateful for your generosity. If you are making a casserole, the recipes, directions, and pans are located at the Aberdeen Avenue door of the church. If you would like to buy a frozen casserole, the family size frozen dinners of Stouffers lasagna, Macaroni and Cheese, scalloped potatoes or any other family size variety are appreciated.

No time to cook? Some much needed grocery items include: Coffee, Creamer, Cake Mixes, Brownie Mix, Pancake Mix, Granola Bars, Pop Tarts, Peanut Butter and Jelly. These items can be dropped off in the Parish Library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

SCHOOL NEWS

Dear SKS Parishioners,

What a beautiful season Fall can be. Take a walk and look around to see the majestic colors of the leaves and the bright colors of mums sprinkled over front lawns. The glory of God's earthly masterpiece is truly seen in this season.

We have been fortunate the last several weeks to use the outdoors for recess, lunch and as classrooms. At any given time, almost half of our students have been outside eating, playing, and learning on the grass, on a beach towel or a pad cushion. We know it won't last forever but it is a wonderful sight to see.

Please continue to pray for us in the weeks ahead that we stay safe and stay in school. It's where we are meant to be and need to be. As you pray for us, we will keep you, our devoted parishioners, in prayer that your families remain safe, healthy and experience the peace of joy of His love.

Thank you for your ongoing support of St Katharine of Siena School.

Take care,

Bud

Mr. Checchia, our art teacher, with the Home and School Halloween Scarecrow entries.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, of St. Katharine of Siena Parish, believe that we have been gifted with life, faith and discipleship. Empowered by Jesus in word and sacrament, we are called to grow in wisdom and grace, fidelity to His Church, and in service to our brothers and sisters.
