PARISH ACTIVITIES

Mercy Hospice Giving Tree

This weekend is the deadline for dropping off your wrapped gift for the Mercy Hospice Giving Tree. There are decorated drop off boxes in the church where gifts can be left. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

Mercy Hospice

Thank you for your continued generosity to the women and children at Mercy Hospice. We are currently collecting the following items:

- Turkeys—we will be collecting these up until Christmas. Please drop off in the freezer.
- Groceries—please drop off in the church library.
- Homemade or store bought “party size” casseroles—please drop off in the freezer. Pans and recipes are located inside the Aberdeen Avenue door of the church.
- Infant diapers—sizes 1 and 2—please drop off at the church library.

For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

Women of Hope Special Request

We are currently collecting the following items for the homeless women at Women of Hope:

New winter jackets/coats, hats and gloves
New towels, washcloths and socks.

Thank you for your generosity. These items can be dropped off in the church library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

SCHOOL NEWS

Dear SKS Families,

For anyone that made it last week to the Live Nativity here at SKS, I hope you found it meaningful. Our Home and School has worked hard through the pandemic to help keep our community close at a time when it is challenging to do so. I am so grateful for their efforts.

As you can see from the pictures below, jolly ole St. Nick made some personal stops to the houses of over 150 of our school families to check in on them and see what was on our students' Christmas list. It was a kind surprise to our many families that he came to these parts at a time when he is so busy. A Gingerbread House contest will be held for our families next week with entries being brought to school.

Finally, last week our virtual Christmas Concert by grades KG-4 was sent to our SKS parishioners to view and on Wednesday this week, we will be sending out to our entire parish community the virtual version of our annual Christmas Tableau by our 5th — 8th grades. I hope you go to the parish website to view them. Normally, these events are held to a packed house in church, however, the pandemic cannot put a damper on our community's spirit of joy and peace that the Advent/Christmas seasons bring us.

Wishing your families joy and peace, I remain.....

Most sincerely,

Bud

From the desk of Monsignor Brouwer

A BIRTH LIKE NO OTHER - A CHRISTMAS LIKE NO OTHER

A little more than 2,000 years ago in the little town of Bethlehem, a child was born. But, it was not like any other; it was our Savior and he was born into a troubled world. At that time, God's chosen people were surrounded by their enemy, the Romans, restricted in their daily activities and taxed without concern for their wellbeing.

This year, we also find ourselves in a troubled world, surrounded by an enemy we cannot even see and, we, too, are restricted in our daily activities and our patience is taxed, our wellbeing challenged. Among the many restrictions were two longstanding, treasured traditions in our school: the annual Christmas Concert and Christmas Tableau. Due to the coronavirus pandemic, these wonderful activities could not be presented live but had to be recorded and presented virtually. I hope you will enjoy them when they are made available through our parish website and Option C.

But, not to be defeated, our school's Home and School Board, led by a very imaginative and resourceful Jennifer Driscoll and her husband Adam, worked very hard with a handful of dedicated parents to prepare a Live Nativity with some hardy seventh graders and complete with live animals. Last weekend, a small but well-coordinated group of parishioners transformed our school's playground into a five-stop Live Nativity presentation. Last Sunday, over 360 cars drove through to experience the Annunciation, the Holy Family's arrival in Bethlehem, shepherds out in the fields, the birth of our Lord and the empty cross.

Of course, we all know it began with the Annunciation when the Angel Gabriel, accompanied by a sheep (yes, that's a real live sheep!) told Mary that she would bear a son and would name him Jesus.

We all know that Joseph and Mary traveled to Bethlehem. There was no room in the Inn, so they went to the manger next door, which they shared with an alpaca.

Meanwhile, shepherds were standing watch in the fields when they heard angels proclaim the birth of a Savior.

So they hastened to Bethlehem where they found Mary and Joseph with the infant Jesus settled into the manger, accompanied by an angel, a donkey and a baby goat that had befriended the Blessed Mother.

As those who visited the Live Nativity heard on the audio presentation that accompanied it, “While Christmas celebrates the birth of a savior, the story finds its concluding significance in what the life of Jesus was meant to do. You see, Christmas celebrates the Savior born for us. What the Bible teaches is that this Savior brought salvation not only in his life, but through his death on a cross. Christmas remembers the birth of Jesus yet the Bible reminds us that Jesus was born to die for us, saving us from our sin and raising us to new, eternal life so that at the name of Jesus, every knee would bow in heaven, and on earth, and under the earth. Jesus came, lived a perfect life and died on a cross to defeat sin and death in our life, and bring us eternal salvation. This is what Christmas is all about.”

In the name of everyone who visited the Live Nativity, I want to thank all those who prepared and presented it. This was, indeed, an inspirational event; a great way for all who came to be reminded why Jesus, the Son of God, came into our midst: to overcome sin and death and lead us all back to the Father!

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, of St. Katharine of Siena Parish, believe that we have been gifted with life, faith and discipleship. Empowered by Jesus in word and sacrament, we are called to grow in wisdom and grace, fidelity to His Church, and in service to our brothers and sisters.
