From the desk of Monsignor Brouwers

As we begin Catholic Schools Week with the theme, “Catholic Schools: Faith. Excellence. Service,” I want to call your attention to the logo that the National Catholic Education Associate has developed for this year. In presenting this logo, the NCEA offers this explanation:

The logo emphasizes that the Catholic school, like the Catholic Church, is not a building or an institution, but it is the people. As the people of God, we are called to work together to bring the Kingdom of God to earth and raise up the next generation to do the same. The image of teachers and students forming the foundation of the school shows that they are active people of faith who serve others and God. Catholic schools have a specific purpose to form students to be good citizens of the world, love God and neighbor and enrich society with the leaven of the gospel and by example of faith. As communities of faith, Catholic schools instill in students their destiny to become saints. Academic excellence is the hallmark of Catholic education intentionally directed to the growth of the whole person – mind, body and spirit. Finally, service is fundamental to Catholic education and the core of Catholic discipleship. Service is intended to help form people who are not only witnesses to Catholic social teaching, but also active participants through social learning.

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia has enjoyed a very strong tradition of Catholic education that dates back to the late 18th century, with the establishment of a parochial school at St. Mary parish. By 1860, under the leadership of our fourth bishop, Saint John Neumann, there were 17 parish elementary schools in Philadelphia. By 1911, there were 68,000 students in Catholic schools throughout the Archdiocese. And, in 1916, our own St. Katharine School opened with a surprisingly high enrollment of 168 students (Msgr. Charles F. Kavanaugh, the pastor of our young parish – it was founded in 1893 – had only anticipated 100 students) who crowded into six classrooms. Thanks to the long, consistent history of an excellent faculty and staff, our school has continued to grow. While so many other Catholic schools throughout our Archdiocese have closed or consolidated, our enrollment today is a very strong 414 students and our school, under the visionary and enthusiastic leadership of our principal, Mr. Bud Tosti, and the outstanding guidance of our wonderful teachers and staff, continues to thrive, even in the midst of the pandemic! I am particularly impressed by how our Home and School Board has demonstrated such imagination in hosting Halloween Scarecrow and Christmas Gingerbread House contests as well as an inspirational Living Nativity. These all raised our spirits and kept our community strong despite the social distancing restrictions we have all been called to observe. I also continue to be encouraged by the enthusiasm, dedication and imagination of our recently-formed Board of Limited Jurisdiction. You will recall that this Board was established just two years ago to assist us in the marketing, enrollment and development for the school. It has already hosted two young alumni reunions as well as an extremely successful Leap for SKS last 29 February. This event was both an opportunity for classmates through the years to reunite and everyone to show their financial support for our wonderful school; it netted $218,000! This financial support is so important for the health of our school. Although tuition payments cover most school expenses, the parish contributes as well; over the past ten years, it has provided an average of 12% of the school operating costs. Everyone in the parish who contributes to our Sunday collections contributes to the operation of the school so, in the name of our students, I thank you!

Yes, teaching our children about faith, excellence and service is essential for the continued mission of our parish and, indeed, the entire Church. As we celebrate Catholic Schools Week, let’s thank God for our strong and vibrant school and rededicate ourselves – each of us – to teaching our children the wondrous ways of our faith! May we all strive to live in active service of Jesus and his mission as we join together with the rest of the Catholic schools throughout our country in celebrating Catholic Schools Week.

YOUTH GROUP

A special "Thank You" to the high school students who helped at our MLK Day of Service Monday morning pick up. These students represent many of the schools in the area: Radnor and Conestoga High Schools, Malvern Prep, Episcopal Academy and St. Joe's Prep!

Just a reminder: There will be NO Youth Mass the weekend of February 7th. Mark your calendars for our next Youth Mass, Sunday, March 7th at 6:00 pm.

The 7th and 8th grade Youth Group will resume next Tuesday, February 2nd in the parish center from 3:00 pm to 4:00 pm.

PARISH ACTIVITIES

New Request for Mercy Hospice And Women of Hope

Mercy Hospice is a homeless shelter that assists women and children in stabilizing their lives and helps them achieve self-sufficiency. Women of Hope is a shelter that responds to the growing needs of young homeless women. Both shelters are currently in need of new socks and new underwear. These two items are the most commonly requested and are greatly appreciated.

These items can be dropped off in the church library. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648. Thank you for your continued support.

Women's Evening of Reflection First Thursday of the Month

The next Evening of Reflection will be this Thursday from 6:30 to 8:30pm. RSVP is required since seating in the parish center is limited.

If you have any questions or would like to RSVP, please reach out to Laura Kerr, evangelization@sksparish.org or Carol Pappas, 610-220-6693.

Spiritual Adoption Program

We invite you to say Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen’s Prayer for Spiritual Adoption daily.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
I love you very much
I beg you to spare the life of the preborn child that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion.

Prayer cards are available at the church entrances. Please take one and share it with friends and family. A suggestion is to keep it at your kitchen table so it is always visible. We will pray this as a parish for 9 months.

Rosary for an End to the Coronavirus

As we continue to struggle through the ongoing coronavirus pandemic, one of our parishioners is leading a rosary at 7:00pm in church every Tuesday. All are encouraged to come and pray to our Blessed Mother for her intercession to her Son, Our Lord, that he may have mercy on us during these challenging times!

Assistive Hearing Units

We have a hearing assistance system in church and six hearing assistance units; they are available in the sacristy. If you would like to use one, please come to the sacristy before Mass. The sacristan will show you how to use it. Feel free to bring your own earbuds to ensure a better fit, or, you can use earpieces we have with the hearing assistance units.

Low-Gluten Hosts Available at Mass

As more people become aware of celiac disease, which, according to a recent report in the World of Gastroenterology, “now affects one in 100 people in Europe and North America,” low-gluten hosts (i.e., with a gluten content of 0.01 percent) are available at Mass for those who request them. Please contact the rectory during regular office hours or text Msgr. Brouwers directly (610-420-8749) at least fifteen minutes before the Mass you plan to attend so the hosts can be ready for you.

Parish Nurse Ministry

Reminders for dealing with the cold:

1. Drink plenty of fluids, eat a healthy diet, avoid caffeine and alcohol before going outside.
2. Check to make sure you have plenty of batteries.
3. No generator should be inside the home. Place the generator at least 20 feet from the house.
4. Never shovel or go walking alone in frigid weather.
5. Wear no-skid boots when shoveling.
6. Shovel on an hourly basis instead of all at once.
7. Push snow to the side and lift with legs, not back, with no twist of the torso.
8. If you have a life alert, keep it on you at all times.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, of St. Katharine of Siena Parish, believe that we have been gifted with life, faith and discipleship. Empowered by Jesus in word and sacrament, we are called to grow in wisdom and grace, fidelity to His Church, and in service to our brothers and sisters.
