From the desk of Monsignor Brouwers

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion and Holy Week

"Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come! Hosanna in the highest!" (Mk 11:9b-10). On Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, we are called to join with our Lord, Jesus Christ, as he makes a triumphant entry into Jerusalem, and then suffers derision and mockery, scourging and finally crucifixion because he comes to offer a new way of life and claims to be who he truly is – the Son of God. This week is, indeed, what we Christians call it: Holy Week. Throughout this week, we are reminded that God, who is holy, has called us to follow his son as he leads us from a life of sin to a life of holiness. Today, we join our Lord in Jerusalem, where he goes to accomplish his paschal mystery. We hear about his triumphant entry into Jerusalem as well as his humiliating passion and death on the cross. We take home the palm that is blessed at Mass today to drape around our crucifixes, uniting us with the crowd that welcomed Jesus, proclaiming him to be the "Son of David." The celebrant wears a red chasuble today, symbolic of the blood that Jesus shed on the cross. The Gospel, ordinarily proclaimed by a priest or deacon, is today proclaimed through the active participation of the entire congregation. All of this draws us into this most important week, when Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is betrayed and abandoned by his followers as he accomplishes the work that his heavenly Father has sent him to do. We, who have come to recognize our sinfulness and Jesus' saving power during this Lenten Season, are now called to decide whether or not we want to stay with the fickle crowd that one day acclaims Jesus as their savior and king, and on another day, calls for his death, or with the Christ, who is willing to suffer humiliation, abandonment, agony and even death in obedience to the Father's will and for the good of his people.

There are many opportunities this week to participate in this great liturgical event. On Holy Thursday, the only Masses permitted are the Chrism Mass, which is celebrated at the Cathedral of every (arch)diocese around the world, and the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper. Monsignor Carroll, Fr. Waters and I will join with hundreds of other priests and deacons from throughout the Archdiocese at the Cathedral of Ss. Peter and Paul at 10:00am on Thursday to concelebrate the Chrism Mass with Archbishop Pérez. At this Eucharistic celebration, all of us priests will renew our priestly promises and Archbishop Pérez will bless the sacred oils that will be used in every parish throughout the year in the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and anointing of the sick. Ordinarily, hundreds of people from throughout the Archdiocese join in this moving celebration. Unfortunately, due to the ongoing pandemic, only the clergy will be invited. I ask that you keep us clergy – deacons, priests and bishops – in your prayers as we renew our ordination promises.

That evening (7:00pm), everyone is invited to join in the Mass of the Lord's Supper here at the parish when we participate in the celebration of the institution of the Eucharist. The church will remain open until 10:00pm for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Our Knights of Columbus will, once again, lead an hour of adoration immediately following Mass. And, on Good Friday, we will not have an Ecumenical Good Friday Celebration at noon due to the pandemic but we will have the Celebration of the Lord's Passion beginning at 3:00pm. It will include veneration of the cross – this year, with a solemn procession and bow before the cross – and holy communion.

On Holy Saturday, our Easter Vigil will be celebrated at 7:00pm. This follows Church directives that the Easter Vigil not be celebrated at the time of day that it is customary to celebrate the Sunday Vigil Mass, thus setting it apart from every other Sunday. Easter Sunday Masses will, however, follow our regular Sunday schedule: 8:00, 9:30 and 11:30am. Those who receive communion at the Vigil may also receive it at another Mass on Easter Day.

All of these liturgies provide us with the opportunity to share in this salvific event. It is important to recognize, however, that we are not just recalling what Jesus did for us in Jerusalem almost 2,000 years ago. We are not just spectators of his great sacrifice. These liturgies celebrate not only what once happened to Jesus but also what is happening among us now as a people called to conversion, called in faith and gifted with the Spirit of holiness. That is why it is so important that we all participate in these liturgies. We are all the people God has created through his Word and now recreates through the Word made Flesh as a community, broken like bread for the world, offered for the sins of humanity, and raised to new life in our savior, Jesus Christ. Come, let us die with Jesus so that we may also rise with him!

THE SHROUD OF TURIN

This week, through the efforts of Paul Hayes, one of our parishioners, we have the privilege of viewing a full scale photographic image of the Shroud of Turin. It will be on display in front of the altar at all of the Sunday Masses this weekend as well as this Tuesday evening, when an expert on the Shroud will offer a presentation on it beginning at 7:00pm. This relic, now preserved at Turin, Italy, is thought by some to be the "clean linen cloth" in which Joseph of Arimathea wrapped the body of Jesus Christ (Matthew 27:59). Though faded by age, it bears the faint but distinct impression of a human form both back and front. There is no record of this Shroud until it was found in 1360 in Lirey, France. In 1453 it was in Chambéry, France where in 1532 it narrowly escaped being destroyed by a fire; you will see a uniform series of marks on either side of the image that resulted from that incident. Since 1578 it has remained in the Cathedral at Turin where it is now only exposed occasionally for veneration. I have had the privilege of praying before it twice. In 2010, Cardinal Foley and I were given 30 minutes before it in private before the local Knights of the Holy Sepulchre were allowed into the Cathedral.

For many years after its discovery, the authenticity of the Shroud of Turin was taken for granted. Pope Sixtus IV wrote in 1484 that in the Shroud "men may look upon the true blood and portrait of Jesus Christ himself. "The Mass Of the Holy Shroud" was formally approved by Pope Julius II when he wrote of "that most famous Shroud in which our Savior was wrapped when he lay in the tomb and which is now honorably and devoutly preserved in a silver casket."

Early on, however, there was controversy surrounding the Shroud. Other Shrouds with similar impressions of the figure of Jesus Christ appeared and some of these cloths, notably those of Besançon, Cadouin, Champiègne and Xabregas, were also claimed to be the authentic linen shroud provided by Joseph of Arimathea. But, until about 100 years ago, no significant doubt was cast upon the genuineness of the Turin relic.

In 1911 however, Canon Ulysse Chevalier, a Catholic scholar of the Middle Ages, discovered that the Bishop of Troyes, France, appealed to Clement VII in 1389 to put a stop to the scandals connected to the Shroud preserved at Lirey. The Bishop explained that it was the work of an artist who some years before had admitted that he had painted it as part of a Holy Week devotional display, but it was then being exhibited by the Canons of Lirey in such a way that the viewers believed that it was the authentic shroud of Jesus Christ. The pope did not prohibit the exhibition of the shroud but required that in the future when it was shown to the people, an announcement should accompany it that it was not the real shroud of Christ, but only a picture made to represent it.

Carbon dating conducted on a piece of the Shroud in 1988 has, once again, thrown doubt on its authenticity, although there remains lively controversy as to the reliability of those tests. Meanwhile, pollen samples taken from the Shroud and the impression of Roman coins used to cover the eyes both point to Jerusalem during the time of Jesus. And, even the most modern techniques are unable to replicate the process for making this image on the cloth. Whether or not it is truly the shroud that covered our Lord as he lay in the tomb, it provides us with a stark visual image of the suffering he endured for us. As Pope Francis wrote so well last year in response to the Shroud's virtual display to encourage prayer on Holy Saturday during the pandemic, "I too join your prayer, turning my gaze to the Man of the Shroud." Pope Francis continued, "we contemplate in this cloth the icon of the Lord Jesus crucified, dead and risen. We entrust ourselves to Him. ...Jesus gives us the strength to face every trial with faith, hope and love, in the certainty that the Father always listens to His children who cry out to Him."

I invite you to spend some time in prayerful contemplation before this image, reflecting on the tremendous love our Lord demonstrated by dying on the cross for us.

YOUTH GROUP

Audrey Gardner, one of the amazing 5th graders in our SKS school has raised money for the Youth Emergency Shelter again for the 5th year in a row. She and her brothers hold a "Hot Chocolate" stand, typically on the coldest day of the year, in their neighborhood and with the proceeds she purchases new bath towels and blankets for the teens ages 12-17 who live at the shelter. In a typical year Audrey would bring the items to our MLK Day of Service, but this year she delivered them with her mom to the 1526 Fairmount Shelter in Spring Garden. This past November, Pope Francis encouraged all to "stretch forth your hand to the poor" (Sir 7:32) in his message on the Fourth World Day of the Poor. We are so proud of Audrey who continues to "stretch forth her hand" to the ones who need help.

The Youth Group is collecting individually wrapped Easter Candy for the women and children who live at Mercy Hospice. We will be assembling 10 baskets and 30 Easter bags. Please drop off in the church library or the vestibule of the church this weekend. Thank you!

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Academic Honors

The following students from St. Katharine's have merited academic honors at St. Joe's Prep: Matthew Bowen, Colin Campbell, James Fox, Kieran Kicks, Austin Hodges, Sean Maguire, Gavin Maher, John McCormick, Michael McCormick, Padraig McNamara, James Miller, Joseph Miller, Nicholas Mulvanerty, Kevin O'Brien, Gerard Stefan, Alec Treadway and Quinn Worrell. Congratulations!

The following students from St. Katharine's have merited academic honors at Sacred Heart Academy Bryn Mawr: Regan Dougherty and Angelina Polaha. Congratulations!

Pontifical Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked all parishes to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

Please be generous!

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday..

SKS Knights of Columbus

On the weekend of April 17th-18th, the Knights of Columbus will be selling CHANCE OF A LIFETIME chances after all the Masses. This year, each chance costs $5, and the prizes are cash ranging from $1,000 to $15,000. The COAL chances helps to support K of C scholarships and your parish council. If you have any questions, you can call or text Dr. Bill Lehner at 610-674-6267 or email Lehn@comcast.net.
