ST. MARTIN DE PORRES PARISHIONERS RETURN

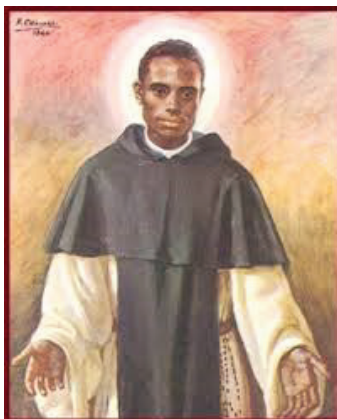

After a year's hiatus due to the coronavirus pandemic, we're happy to have Fr. Stephen D. Thorne, the pastor of our sister parish, St. Martin de Porres, join us at all of our Masses next weekend and present the homily as we continue our 40-year tradition of sharing our faith with our sister parish. And, as they have done for many years, members of St. Martin de Porres parish will lead us in song at the 5:00pm Vigil Mass. This year, the men's choir, All God's Men, will be here, once again, to lead us in lively song! Unfortunately, we will not be able to host them for dinner following the Mass; that will have to wait until next year.

For the past 40 years, our parish has enjoyed a special relationship with parishioners who live around 24th Street and Lehigh Avenue in Philadelphia. Originally, they belonged to St. Columba Parish, a parish that had been founded in 1895, two years after our parish was founded. When St. Columba parish was combined with two other parishes (St. Mary of the Eternal, which closed in 1976, and Corpus Christi, which closed in 1987) to become St. Martin de Porres Parish in 1993, we continued our relationship with a special focus on its newly-established St. Martin de Porres School. In 2011, St. Martin became an independent Catholic School under the management and financial responsibility of Friends of St. Martin de Porres. The Archdiocese of Philadelphia, which had worked closely with the school at its foundation, continues to provide curriculum support. The school has an enrollment of 427 students from kindergarten to eighth grade. Although only about 10% of the students are Catholic, about 80% of its graduates attend Catholic high schools. The school has done so well, in fact, that it continues to be a model for the 15 other Independent Mission Schools that have been established throughout the Archdiocese. And, much of its success is due to the courageous and farsighted leadership that a handful of our parishioners have provided - along with their outstanding financial support - and the generous financial assistance our parish continues to provide.

Those of you who are familiar with the neighborhood of 24th and Lehigh know that most of the people living there have rather limited financial resources and face many challenges as they try to raise their families. And, although they live just 20 miles from us, they live in a culture that is different from ours in a variety of ways. Additionally, although they are fellow Catholics, they also express their faith in ways that are unfamiliar to some of us, especially in their music, which is often rather lively. So, our ongoing relationship with them enriches both us and them in many ways as we share our lives and faith experiences.

Due to the financial challenges that many of the families with children in St. Martin de Porres face, we started supporting them and the school with food staples, Christmas food baskets and school supplies. Last Christmas, in the midst of the pandemic, you provided large boxes of food and gifts for 75 families! Twenty-one years ago, we expanded our support. As we became aware of the financial needs of the school, we initiated an annual collection to provide assistance for its operating costs. We have also contributed significantly to the restoration and maintenance of the school - especially its library - and provide additional financial assistance throughout the year. Twelve times a year, I am privileged to send a $1,000.00 check to St. Martin de Porres parish from the Feed the Needy second collection we take up monthly. We do all of this in response to Christ's call to love our neighbors as ourselves and our awareness that we all benefit as we share our blessings with them and they share theirs with us.

Next weekend, as we welcome Fr. Thorne and some of his parishioners, we will hear him speak at all the Masses to explain the present situation at the parish and school. A second collection will be taken up to support St. Martin de Porres parish and school. And, if you feel called to get more involved in our sister parish, please contact Mrs. Mary Maria Carrillo (215-764-2166), our parish coordinator for our outreach to St. Martin de Porres parish, for more information. Be sure to take advantage of this opportunity to share our Easter joy with our long-time friends!

St. Martin de Porres pray for us!

SCHOOL NEWS

Dear SKS Parishioners,

Six summers ago, in late August, I received a phone call from a family in Connecticut who was relocating to our area due to a job transfer. They were very interested in continuing with Catholic education. Three children were looking to enroll in school and I gladly told their mother, Susan Schuller, that we had openings and we would be happy to have their children join us. Susan then went on to explain that her son, Michael, entering the second grade, has Down Syndrome. This conversation started a month long process before the start of school as to whether we would be able to provide for him, and resulted in our accepting the whole family. Michael's story at SKS is much longer than this page can do justice but I can tell you this journey for both Michael and for our school has been one of the most rewarding ones in my many years of Catholic education. It has been a tremendous team effort by many people: Michael's family - his parents, Susan and Dan and his five siblings - his teachers and staff, and Michael's classmates. We have taught Michael much these last six years as he finishes up his 7th grade in June; however, Michael has taught us much more.

I like to tell the story that when Michael first arrived he was the Mayor of SKS. Every student and staff member made a fuss over him and welcomed him with open arms. As time went on, it was a beautiful thing to watch as Michael was no longer the mayor; he just became one of us. It was a credit to him, his family, and our entire community. Most especially Michael's classmates - who have been his friends - look out for him, and truly love him. As with any school and family, there have been challenges for all of us in his journey. However, I do believe the Holy Spirit has guided all of us, and Michael was meant to be with us. He has been a gift to SKS.

As you will see in the notice below, Archbishop Pérez will celebrate a special Mass at the Cathedral in Philadelphia On Sunday, April 25th at 3:00pm.. At the Mass, Michael Schuller, his family and our school will be honored by a brief presentation to recognize him, the Schuller family, and our school's efforts to be an inclusive school. The event will be live-streamed as well.

As a school community we are humbled and honored to be a part of this celebratory mass.

Take care,

Bud
