Rosary for an End to the Coronavirus

As we continue to emerge from the coronavirus pandemic, one of our parishioners is leading a rosary at 7:00pm in church every Tuesday. All are encouraged to come and pray to our Blessed Mother for her intercession to her Son, Our Lord, that he may have mercy on us during these challenging times!

Mercy Hospice and Women of Hope

Mercy Hospice and Women of Hope recently asked us to put a hold on any grocery and casserole donations. We will not be collecting or delivering these items at this time. Please look for future bulletin announcements as to when we will resume taking donations. Thank you for your support. For more information, please contact Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171, Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436, Susan Wiener at 610-331-3847 or Vicki Warner at 610-937-1648.

SKS BULLETIN INFORMATION

All Bulletin information must be to the rectory by 5pm on Monday. Bulletin inserts are due to the rectory at least 10 days before the date requested.

APOSTOLIC VICARIATE OF NEKEMTE

"I am the Bread of Life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst" (Jn 6:35) we hear Lord teach us in today's gospel. As more and more of you return to celebrating the Eucharist in person and receiving our Lord in Holy Communion, we know how precious this gift of the Bread of Life is for us. And, we recall that, just as Jesus was sent by his heavenly Father to give us both his life-giving Word and his nourishing Body and Blood, so he has sent all of us followers to share his saving mission with the whole world. We recognize our missionary mandate – to make disciples of all nations and to bring the sacraments, and especially the Eucharist, to everyone – to be our primary task; every other work we do flows from it.

Next Sunday, we will be privileged to have Fr. Dawit Terfa Moroda, who represents the Apostolic Vicariate of Nekemte, Ethiopia, with us as we participate, once again in the Missionary Cooperation Plan. In preparation for his coming, allow me to provide you with some important information about the Apostolic Vicariate of Nekemte. You may first be asking, "What is an apostolic vicariate?" It is a territorial jurisdiction within the Church where a diocese has not yet been established. It is led by a titular bishop with the hope of eventually generating sufficient numbers of Catholics and necessary resources to become a diocese. Currently, there are only approximately 50,000 Catholics in the Apostolic Vicariate of Nekemte, which is located in the western region of Ethiopia. It takes in an area of 33,000 square miles, has 92 parishes, 82 mission churches, 37 priests and 70 religious brothers and sisters. For comparison purposes, our archdiocese has 1.3 million Catholics living in the five counties that comprise the Archdiocese of Philadelphia; all together, they are only 2,200 square miles in size. We have 214 parishes, 752 priests (482 in active ministry) and 2,258 religious brothers and sisters.

Although missionary efforts have been at work in the area of Nekemte for almost two centuries and an apostolic vicariate was established there in 1846, the Church's presence continues to remain tenuous due to the extreme poverty of the people and the fact that Catholics comprise only 0.7% of the total population. Of course, it's important to recognize that Christianity has deep roots in Ethiopia. The Christian faith was introduced there in the 4th century and today, a majority of the country - 62% - is Christian; the rest of the population is Muslim. But, it is the Orthodox Church, not the Catholic Church, that has flourished in Ethiopia. And so, many regions throughout this country struggle to support the Catholic population and need our assistance. Our participation in the annual Missionary Cooperation Plan directly assists the Catholics living in the Nekemte Apostolic Vicariate this year. Please be as generous as you can in your support next week.

In his recent address to the Pontifical Mission Societies, our Holy Father, Pope Francis, once again offered some very insightful reflections on the essential mission of the Church:

The Church is missionary by nature; otherwise, she would no longer be the Church of Christ, but one group among many others that soon end up serving their purpose and passing away. So it is important to ask ourselves certain questions about our Christian identity and our responsibility as believers in a world marked by confusion, disappointment and frustration, and torn by numerous fratricidal wars that unjustly target the innocent. What is the basis of our mission? What is the heart of our mission? What are the essential approaches we need to take in carrying out our mission?

The Church's mission, directed to all men and women of good will, is based on the transformative power of the Gospel. The Gospel is Good News filled with contagious joy, for it contains and offers new life: the life of the Risen Christ who, by bestowing his life-giving Spirit, becomes for us the Way, the Truth and the Life (cf. Jn 14:6). He is the Way who invites us to follow him with confidence and courage. In following Jesus as our Way, we experience Truth and receive his Life, which is fullness of communion with God the Father in the power of the Holy Spirit. That life sets us free from every kind of selfishness, and is a source of creativity in love.

God the Father desires this existential transformation of his sons and daughters, a transformation that finds expression in worship in spirit and truth (cf. Jn 4:23-24), through a life guided by the Holy Spirit in imitation of Jesus the Son to the glory of God the Father. "The glory of God is the living man" (Irenaeus, Adversus Haereses IV, 20, 7). The preaching of the Gospel thus becomes a vital and effective word that accomplishes what it proclaims (cf. Is 55:10-11): Jesus Christ, who constantly takes flesh in every human situation (cf. Jn 1:14).

The Church's mission, then, is not to spread a religious ideology, much less to propose a lofty ethical teaching. Many movements throughout the world inspire high ideals or ways to live a meaningful life. Through the mission of the Church, Jesus Christ himself continues to evangelize and act; her mission thus makes present in history the kairos, the favorable time of salvation. Through the proclamation of the Gospel, the risen Jesus becomes our contemporary, so that those who welcome him with faith and love can experience the transforming power of his Spirit, who makes humanity and creation fruitful, even as the rain does with the earth. "His resurrection is not an event of the past; it contains a vital power which has permeated this world. Where all seems to be dead, signs of the resurrection suddenly spring up. It is an irresistible force" (Evangelii Gaudium, 276).

Let us never forget that "being Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a Person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction" (Benedict XVI, Deus Caritas Est, 1). The Gospel is a Person who continually offers himself and constantly invites those who receive him with humble and religious faith to share his life by an effective participation in the paschal mystery of his death and resurrection. Through Baptism, the Gospel becomes a source of new life, freed of the dominion of sin, enlightened and transformed by the Holy Spirit. Through Confirmation, it becomes a fortifying anointing that, through the same Spirit, points out new ways and strategies for witness and accompaniment. Through the Eucharist, it becomes food for new life, a "medicine of immortality" (Ignatius of Antioch, Ad Ephesios, 20, 2).

The world vitally needs the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Through the Church, Christ continues his mission as the Good Samaritan, caring for the bleeding wounds of humanity, and as Good Shepherd, constantly seeking out those who wander along winding paths that lead nowhere. (Pope Francis World Mission Day Address)

Since this mission of the Church – to spread the Gospel and make disciples of all nations – is so important, every diocese in the world has a mission office to promote this essential mission awareness among the faithful. I had the privilege of being the director of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia Office for the Propagation of the Faith (the official name of the mission office) for four years. And, since I was born in Indonesia (a country with 276 million inhabitants - making it the fourth most populous country in the world - that is still a missionary country; only 3.1% of the total population is Catholic), and have visited many missionary countries around the world, it was a ministry that was – and remains – very close to my heart. When we experience for ourselves the difference our faith makes in the everyday lives of people, we are renewed in our response to the missionary mandate our Lord left us because we want everyone to benefit from the Good News of Salvation and the fullness of God's love!

Every year, every parish in the Archdiocese is invited to respond to this universal missionary call in a variety of ways. On the second-to-the-last Sunday of October, we join with the universal Church in observing Mission Sunday. The collection taken up on Mission Sunday benefits all of the missionary dioceses throughout the world, including the 13 missionary dioceses in the U.S.A.

Additionally, once a year, we participate in the Missionary Cooperative, through which particular missionary organizations visit parishes and share their missionary work with them. This allows each parish to learn a little more about the missionary ministry of a specific missionary organization. And, to assure that all missionary organizations that want to participate are able to do so, the Archdiocesan mission office assigns missionary organizations on a rotation basis throughout the Archdiocese.

I encourage everyone to participate next weekend through prayer and your usual, very generous financial support. Remember what Jeanne Jugan (one of the founders of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith) said - "Some give to the missions by going and some go to the missions by giving" - and please be as generous as you can to this important ministry! And, keep Fr. Moroda and all missionaries in your daily prayers as they spread the Good News of God's love around the world!
