From the desk of Monsignor Brouwers

ANNUAL EUCHARISTIC DEVOTION

"The Second Vatican Council rightly proclaimed that the Eucharistic sacrifice is 'the source and summit of the Christian life. ...For the most holy Eucharist contains the Church's entire spiritual wealth: Christ himself, our Passover and our living bread. Through his own flesh, now made living and life-giving by the Holy Spirit, he offers life to all.' Consequently, the gaze of the Church is constantly turned to her Lord, present in the Sacrament of the Altar, in which she discovers the full manifestation of his boundless love."

In this opening paragraph of his encyclical, Ecclesia de Eucharistia, Saint Pope John Paul II, provided a powerful reminder of the centrality of the Eucharist in the life of all followers of Christ. We need our Lord in our lives and are blessed that he has given himself to us in this clear sign. We truly receive him, body and blood, soul and divinity, whenever we receive Holy Communion. We are truly in his presence when we come before him in the Blessed Sacrament, whether reserved in the tabernacle or exposed on the altar.

Every year, we are privileged to set apart some time to be with our Lord exposed in the Blessed Sacrament during our annual Forty Hours Eucharistic Devotion. This year, our Annual Forty Hours Eucharistic Devotion will be held next week: 10 – 12 October. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed on Sunday, 10 October, after the 11:30am Mass and remain exposed until Evening Prayer and Benediction at 7:00pm. The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed on Monday and Tuesday after the 8:00am Mass and remain exposed all day. On Monday evening, there will be Evening Prayer and Benediction at 7:00pm. On Tuesday evening, the Annual Forty Hours Eucharistic Devotion will conclude with Mass, Procession and Benediction at 7:00pm.

Father Waters graciously accepted my invitation to lead us in reflection on the Blessed Sacrament over these three days. It will be one of the last times that we will benefit from his reflections before he leaves for his new assignment so I encourage you to join us! Fr. Waters has titled his presentations: St. Joseph: the Eucharistic Man. As we celebrate the Year of St. Joseph and have become even more aware of the precious gift of the Eucharist during this time of pandemic, we certainly will do well to reflect on this theme. So, I invite everyone to come and join in to spend some time before Our Lord truly present to us, exposed for our adoration and worship, inspiration and direction! And, if you need some inspiration to help you, bring a Bible along and reflect on the Eucharistic passages found in all the Gospels as well as Paul's first letter to the Corinthians (cf. Matthew 14:13-21; 15:32-39; 26:17-30; Mark 6:34-44; 8:1-21; 14:12-26; Luke 22:7-30; John 6:1-15, 25-69; 13:1-17:26, 1 Corinthians 11:23-29).

The practice of Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in every parish has a long history in our Church. Although its origins are lost in time, St. Charles Borromeo, the patron saint of our seminary who was the archbishop of Milan from 1564 – 1584, wrote about this devotion, known in Italian as Quarant'Ore, as if it were already well established in his day. It was probably started to counter the claim of the Protestant Reformation that our Lord was not really present in the Blessed Sacrament and that Holy Communion was just a memorial of the Last Supper.

This devotion has a long history in this Archdiocese, as well. Saint John Neumann introduced it when he became bishop of Philadelphia in 1852. Bishop Neumann called for every parish in the Philadelphia Diocese - which at that time included most of Pennsylvania, all of Delaware and the southern half of New Jersey - to provide a Forty Hour Eucharistic Devotion every year. The number 40 as a scriptural number speaks of preparation and purification: recall the 40 days of rain in the time of Noah, Moses' 40 days on Mount Sinai before he received the 10 Commandments, the Israelites' wandering in the desert for 40 years before arriving in the Promised Land, Our Lord's 40 days in the desert before he started his public ministry and 40 days among us between his Resurrection and Ascension. Times were assigned to parishes so that Our Lord would be exposed on an altar in the Diocese at all times throughout the year. At that time, very few Catholics received communion more than a few times in their lives due to a theological focus that stressed Christ's divinity and our unworthiness. Consequently, they were eager to come before Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament so that they could at least be in our Lord's presence, even if they felt unworthy to receive him in Holy Communion.

Today, most Catholics who attend Mass receive Communion regularly once they receive their First Holy Communion. But, everyone would benefit from taking time before the Blessed Sacrament for an extended time of prayer and reflection. Our parish provides for this every Monday, when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed from the end of the 8:30am Mass until Benediction at 4:30pm. And, our Annual Forty Hours Eucharistic Devotion offers even more time for us to spend time with our Lord present in the Eucharist. I encourage everyone to take advantage of this special moment in our annual parish life. Whether you stop in for a few moments or an hour, I assure you that you will benefit greatly from quiet time in the presence of our Lord. I can't think of a better way to come together to worship our Lord, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament!

PARISH ACTIVITIES

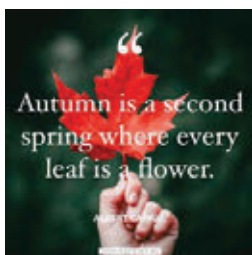

All 7th-12th graders are invited to attend the 40 hours closing Mass on Tuesday, October 12th at 7:00 pm. If you play a fall CYO sport wear your jersey to Mass. We will sit on the Capri side of church (spread out, of course) as a group! There will be ice cream treats outside of church after Mass!

When: Sunday, Oct 17th
Where: SKS Gym
Time: 6:00 - 8:00pm
Cost: $10.00 (All proceeds will help purchase Christmas gifts for a St. Martin's Family)

Hospitality Ministry seeking volunteers

As you know, the pandemic forced the church to stop using ushers for the weekly collection and parishioners to bring up the offertory gifts. Fortunately, now these much-loved traditions may resume. We warmly welcome everyone to ensure that we have participation at each of the weekend Masses. We are seeking families who would like to be greeters at the entrances of the church and ushers who will pass the collection baskets, as well as people to bring up the offertory gifts at each Mass. If you have children who are altar servers or you are involved already at Mass, please consider enlisting your family to help us. We would love this opportunity to include entire families to share time and talent. We will resume these activities at the Masses on the first Sunday of Advent, November 28, 2021. Please send an email or call Janna Forte (janna@fortevivo.com/484-432-2640) if you would like to help. We would like to have all participants registered by November 7th so that we can prepare the schedule.

St. Martin de Porres

Next Sunday, Msgr. Brouwers will be celebrating Mass at St. Martin de Porres, our sister parish located in Philadelphia. Our choir will accompany Msgr. and perform with the St. Martin de Porres choir -- a beautiful combination of music. This annual Mass in the spectacular church of St Martin de Porres is always special and memorable! A reception for St. Katharine's parishioners will follow the Mass. Please consider attending. If you wish to attend, but do not want to drive, a school bus has been reserved to transport the choir and any interested parishioners. It will be parked at the school and departs at 9:00am for St. Martin's (and leaves St. Martin's at 12:30pm). The Mass starts at 10:00am. St. Martin de Porres church is located at 2300 West Lehigh Avenue. If you have any questions, please contact Maria Carrillo at (215) 764-2166.

CYO Winter Basketball registration is now open

Please register at SKS CYO website at <http://skscyo.website.siplay.com/>

Registration will remain open until November 2nd.

Any questions please contact communications@sksparish.org

CYO Athletic Board

The Athletic Board is looking for new members to fill the following positions:

- * Spring Sports Coordinator is responsible for coordinating boys baseball, girls lacrosse, and co-ed track and field
- * Secretary/Governance Coordinator is responsible for Board Governance, Board recruitment, succession planning and meeting minutes
- * Spiritual/Service Coordinator is responsible for organizing a service project each session and incorporating our Catholic mission into the CYO program

If you are interested in serving our community in any of these roles, please contact ad@sksparish.org or get in touch with any of the Board members directly.
