Safe Environment Clearances Needed Before Serving

If you are planning to volunteer with our children in any capacity at Saint Katharine of Siena, you need to have several clearances in place. Please see our website www.sksparish.org, then click Information and scroll down to Volunteer. Please complete and submit all clearances to Colleen Maguire in the Rectory Office.

Hospitality Ministry seeking volunteers

As you know, the pandemic forced the church to stop using ushers for the weekly collection and parishioners to bring up the offertory gifts. Fortunately, now these much-loved traditions may resume. We warmly welcome everyone to ensure that we have participation at each of the weekend Masses. We are seeking families who would like to be greeters at the entrances of the church and ushers who will pass the collection baskets, as well as people to bring up the offertory gifts at each Mass. If you have children who are altar servers or you are involved already at Mass, please consider enlisting your family to help us. We would love this opportunity to include entire families to share time and talent. We will resume these activities at the Masses on the first Sunday of Advent, November 28, 2021. Please send an email or call Janna Forte (janna@fortevivo.com/484-432-2640) if you would like to help. We would like to have all participants registered by November 7th so that we can prepare the schedule.

Check out our website at www.sksparish.org!

OFFICE of the ARCHBISHOP

October 17, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This year World Mission Sunday will be observed on October 24th. This celebration will also mark the 110th Anniversary of the Pontifical Mission Societies. Thanks to the prayers and financial support of the faithful from our local Church, the Societies have helped provide for the needs of missionaries world-wide for more than a century.

Our Church's missionary history is a rich one. It is filled with monumental saintly examples we can strive to imitate such as Francis Xavier and Thérèse of Lisieux who serve as Patron & Patroness of the Missions, Damien of Molokai, Kateri Tekakwitha and Daniele Comboni, to name just a few of the many Catholic missionaries who became saints.

Locally, the Archdiocese of Philadelphia has long ties to the important work of the Pontifical Mission Societies. We were one of the first places in the United States to designate a local office specifically tasked with supporting missionaries half-a-world away. In 1956, we held one of the largest exhibits of Catholic Missions ever with 500,000 people gathered here to meet 170 missionary groups with Archbishop Fulton Sheen as the keynote speaker.

The international theme for World Mission Sunday this year is, "Proclaim It with Joy...We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard." It comes from Acts 4:20 and is a wonderful reflection of the missionary spirit flowing through our Archdiocese. It also summons each of us to bring others what we bear in our hearts. This Mission has always been the hallmark of the Church, for "She exists to evangelize."

I invite everyone to pray for missionaries around the world this weekend and to provide help as your means allow. Your gifts will support priests, consecrated religious, and lay pastoral leaders in 1,111 Mission Diocese around the globe as they proclaim the Gospel, build up the Church, and serve the poor.

Thank you for your continuous commitment to Mission throughout our Archdiocese over the years and for your generous response on this special day. As Pope Francis tells us, "To be on Mission is to be willing to think as Christ does, to believe with him that those around us are also my brothers and sisters." May Christ's compassionate love touch our hearts and make us all true Missionary disciples.

Sincerely in Christ,

Archbishop Nelsen J. Pérez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia
