Welcome Joyce Chen

A native of Taiwan, Dr. Joyce Chen is delighted to begin serving as the new Organist/Choir Director at St. Katharine of Siena. Dr. Chen is currently a Ph.D. candidate in Historical Musicology and Interdisciplinary Humanities at Princeton University, working on her dissertation, "Musica Experientia/Experimentum: Acoustics, Aesthetics, and Artisanal Knowledge in Seventeenth-Century Europe," which explores the intersection between science, music, and aesthetics involving instrument making, sensory experience, and the development of acoustical theory. In addition, she is finishing building her first harpsichord from a Troubadour Virginal Kit. Dr. Chen is also Adjunct Faculty at Delaware State University, where she teaches music courses, provides applied keyboard lessons, accompanies and coaches instrumental and voice students.

As a performing artist, Dr. Chen is well-versed in harpsichord, organ, and piano. Dr. Chen is a recipient of the 2018 Individual Artist Fellowship (Emerging Professional) from the Delaware Division of the Arts. In May 2019, Dr. Chen was a featured solo performer of the Emerging Artist Showcase by Early Music America at the Bloomington Early Music Festival. Dr. Chen holds a D.M.A. degree in Harpsichord Performance from Stony Brook University and a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from UC Berkeley. Outside of academia and church music, Dr. Chen has an online following at her YouTube channel, where she frequently uploads content videos of solo and chamber music performances, as well as tutorials relating to harpsichord constructions.

We warmly welcome Joyce as our new organist and choir director! She will surely help us in our worship of God.

Adopt-a-Family, Christmas Food Baskets, Mercy Hospice Giving Tree

Although many of us are fortunate to be returning to a rather normal life, the coronavirus continues to affect the lives of many parishioners in our sister parish, St. Martin de Porres. We also have families in our own parish who could use some assistance as Christmas arrives; it's just a little more than six weeks away! We have several parish initiatives that will allow you to give to those in need as you celebrate God's great gift of his Son, Jesus. For those of you not familiar with them or who would benefit from a little refresher, allow me to explain each of these excellent programs: Adopt-a-Family, Christmas Food Basket and the Mercy Hospice Giving Tree.

Adopt-a-Family

For the past 29 years, a small group of parishioners have coordinated this program that makes Christmas happier for dozens of needy families at our sister parish, St. Martin de Porres - as well as in our own neighborhood - with gifts from generous parishioners who recognize that the spirit of Christmas includes giving to others as our God has given us his Son. We ordinarily have a sign-up weekend in mid-November when you are given the opportunity to adopt a family after the Sunday Masses. Due to the pandemic, however, this sign up was done virtually last year. This approach was so successful that we have decided to do it virtually again this year. Beginning next Saturday, 13 November, you will have the opportunity to sign up to adopt a family through a link you will find in our weekly Flocknote email or on our website or Facebook page. You will be able to select from a list of families and given their names, as well as the ages and sizes of the children so you can personalize your gifts. After purchasing the gifts, you are asked to wrap them or put them in gift bags with their names on each gift. Then, on Saturday, 4 December, we ask you to deliver them to school between 10:00am and 2:00pm; members of our parish Youth Group will be at hand to take your gifts from your cars to the cafeteria.

Christmas Food Basket

In addition to the Adopt-a-Family program, we offer everyone an opportunity to share the joy of Christmas with the needy, both at St. Martin de Porres and our own parish, through the Christmas Food Basket Program. Starting next week, you will find a shopping list of the items you may include in this food basket in our Parish Bulletin which will provide all the staples for a Christmas meal for an entire family. Through the ongoing generosity of a parishioner, boxes will be provided inside the main entrance of the parish center toward the end of November that you can use to pack your groceries. These boxes will also be collected at our school on Saturday, 4 December, between 10:00am and 2:00pm.

Mercy Hospice Giving Tree

You may already know that we provide casseroles to the Philadelphia Mercy Hospice, which cares for women and their children without permanent housing. Every Christmas, tags suggesting gifts for these women and children are placed on the two Mercy Hospice Giving Trees that you will find at the St. Theresa Shrine and in the baptistery starting in two weeks. You are asked to attach the red tag and place gifts in the boxes provided in the St. Therese Shrine by 12 December. Please contact Jane Dwyer (610-306-9171) or Jane Dooner (610-505-1436), the Mercy Hospice Coordinators, if you have any questions.

The women and children at Mercy Hospice have benefitted from your generosity for 39 years, ever since we started the casserole project in our parish. I want to take this opportunity to thank Jane Dwyer, Jane Dooner, Vicki Warner and Susan Wiener for enthusiastically stepping in to co-ordinate this important parish outreach (following the passing of Kay and Jerry Lafferty) not only at Christmas time but throughout the year; their dedication to this program is inspirational to us all!

I also want to thank Maria Carillo, our dedicated coordinator with for all of our St. Martin de Porres projects, as well as Dick Banister, Pat Carney, Howard and Missy Deck, Jeff and Kathy Moore, Shannon Reilly, who have helped with these Christmas projects for so many years! So many of you have made it clear throughout the years that you are aware of the true spirit of Christmas and are eager to share God's love as we celebrate this clearest sign of his love – his coming in our midst to save us! God came to show his loving concern for all people and to bring them into his loving family, and your generosity has helped many people – both here in our own parish and throughout the archdiocese – to experience God's love!

PARISH ACTIVITIES

Last week's 7th-8th grade Youth Group consisted of an intense game of soccer, Halloween Charades, ice cream treats and we filled Halloween treat bags for Norristown Homeless shelter.

The next Youth Group Mass will be this Sunday, November 7th at 6:00pm. Youth Group will follow from 7:00-8:00pm in the parish center.

The Youth Group retreat "Life on the Street" has been moved to Friday, Nov 12th from 7:00 - 11:00 pm. Contact Steph Twohig for information youthministry@sksparish.org

Parish Coffee

Please join us in the parish center after the 9:30 Mass next Sunday for a parish coffee hosted by the Music Ministry. Coffee and treats will be served! All are welcome!

Rosary for an End to the Coronavirus

As we continue to struggle with the coronavirus pandemic, one of our parishioners is leading a rosary at 7:00pm in the church every Tuesday. All are encouraged to come and pray to our Blessed Mother for her intercession to her Son, Our Lord, that he may have mercy on us during these challenging times!

Hospitality Ministry seeking volunteers

As you know, the pandemic forced the church to stop using ushers for the weekly collection and parishioners to bring up the offertory gifts. Fortunately, now these much-loved traditions may resume. We warmly welcome everyone to ensure that we have participation at each of the weekend Masses. We are seeking families who would like to be greeters at the entrances of the church and ushers who will pass the collection baskets, as well as people to bring up the offertory gifts at each Mass. If you have children who are altar servers or you are involved already at Mass, please consider enlisting your family to help us. We would love this opportunity to include entire families to share time and talent. We will resume these activities at the Masses on the first Sunday of Advent, November 28, 2021. Please send an email or call Janna Forte (janna@fortevivo.com/484-432-2640) if you would like to help. We would like to have all participants registered by November 7th so that we can prepare the schedule.
