KEYS TO THE KINGDOM

PHASE 2

I hope you are enjoying our new pipe organ as much as I am! Finally, after six years of extensive research, careful planning, building, installation and voicing, our new organ is able to accompany us as we worship God in song-filled prayer. The official musical instrument of the Catholic Church ever since Charlemagne installed one in his chapel in 812AD, its wide range of tones provides musical expression for all of our spiritual impulses, from sadness and despair to joy and praise! It will be a special privilege to bless our new pipe organ at all the Masses this weekend!

As we begin to benefit from our new organ, we also resume our Keys to the Kingdom Capital Campaign, begun in the spring of 2019. We have already raised $930,000 over these past three years and I thank everyone who has contributed so generously! As with so many other aspects of our lives, our Capital Campaign was interrupted by the coronavirus. But now, as all of our parish activities – most importantly, our worship of God – resume with more and more parishioners participating, it is time to resume the Campaign. If you haven't done so already, you will soon be receiving a mailing announcing its resumption with a request for your continued support. The final goal for this Campaign, which will pay for the construction and installation of our new Fratelli Ruffatti pipe organ, our Bösendorfer model 225 grand piano and the installation of a smoke and fire alarm system in our church, is $1,340,000. I initially demonstrated my personal support for this important project by pledging $10,000 in March 2019; that pledge was fulfilled last December. I recently gave an additional $5,000. I hope you will follow my lead and contribute or pledge at least half of the amount that you originally gave. And, if you missed the opportunity to contribute to this Campaign earlier, this is a good time to step up and share in supporting this important project through which we leave our legacy for generations to come. Your support will ensure that we will reach the Campaign goal!

I want to take this opportunity to thank Dr. Ted Latham, our parish Director of Liturgical Music, and Dr. Valentin Radu, our Saturday evening musical accompanist and his colleague Paul Marchesano, Mr. Chris Plasha, our parish Facilities Manager, as well as Mr. Donald McFarland, the U.S. representative for Fratelli Ruffatti, who all worked so hard on this project over these past six years to provide us with such a fine instrument. And, I am grateful to Francesco, Michela and Piero Ruffatti who oversaw its design, construction, shipment and installation. They have so clearly demonstrated their expertise and dedication to provide an outstanding organ specifically built for our church.

Our new piano and organ will enhance our worship for many years. Organs of this quality are still gracing churches throughout Europe hundreds of years after they were installed. It is my prayer that our church and our new organ will share the same destiny. We all know that God deserves the very best; let's make sure that we make a worthy return to God in response to his generous care for us!

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Happy Easter! As we bring the Octave of Easter to its conclusion, know that I have kept you in my prayers all week, that you may experience the joy of the Resurrection! Today is also Divine Mercy Sunday. Heeding the call that our risen Lord gave to St. Marie Faustina Kowalska in the 1930's, the Church decreed on 23 May 2000 that "throughout the world, the Second Sunday of Easter will receive the name Divine Mercy Sunday, a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that humankind will experience in the years to come." This certainly speaks to us today, as we continue to struggle with a wide variety of difficulties and trials in the midst of the ongoing coronavirus pandemic and the war in Ukraine, as well as continued unrest between Israel and Palestine.

I'm sure you're familiar with the image of Divine Mercy; it originated from a vision St. Faustina had on Feb. 22, 1931. So what is the symbolism of the image? The image of Divine Mercy represents the risen Christ whose hands and feet bear the marks of his crucifixion. When asked about the meaning of the rays from his pierced heart, Jesus explained, as St. Faustina recorded in her diary:

"The pale ray stands for the water which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the blood which is the life of souls. ... These two rays issued forth from the very depths of my tender mercy when my agonized heart was opened by a lance on the cross." (Diary, 299)

These two rays signify the sacraments of mercy (Baptism and Penance), and the Eucharist. The Eucharist is the life-sustaining food for our spiritual journey. The water speaks of the sacraments of Baptism and Penance, since it is through these sacraments that our souls are washed clean.

Jesus promised an abundance of blessings to those who venerate this image. As you spend time in veneration, allow me to reflect on this relatively new observance of God's eternal mercy, why it was introduced and how it can help us in these days of distress and worry. Our need for the message of Divine Mercy took on particular urgency in the beginning of the 20th century. As Saint John Paul II explained so well in his encyclical, Evangelium Vitae, it was a time of "[t]he eclipse of the sense of God and of man" which "inevitably leads to a practical materialism and breeds individualism, utilitarianism and hedonism." It was a time when so many people began to lose the understanding of the sanctity and inherent dignity of human life. So, in the 1930s, Jesus chose a Polish nun, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, to receive private revelations concerning Divine Mercy that were recorded in her diary. St. John Paul II explained in Memory and Identity, the last book that he wrote:

This was precisely the time when those ideologies were taking shape. Sister Faustina became the herald of the one message capable of offsetting the evil of those ideologies, that fact that God is mercy - the truth of the merciful Christ. And for this reason, when I was called to the See of Peter, I felt impelled to pass on those experiences of a fellow Pole that deserve a place in the treasury of the universal Church.

As we continue to struggle with the ongoing stresses of the coronavirus pandemic as well as the other struggles we face, both personally and worldwide, we may be asking ourselves why this is happening to us? Is God punishing us, as some would say? As we have just completed the Lenten Season and have begun the joyous Easter Season, some of the reflections we find in St. Faustina's Diary may help us to understand God's hand in this moment.

First of all, it's essential to recognize that everything that happens in the created universe is part of God's plan. Nothing is an accident, nothing is an afterthought. This doesn't mean that everything is predetermined but rather that God, who is all knowing, is always in charge. Yet, in his infinite love for us, God also gives us free choice and our choices have consequences. Second, it's important to realize that God's plan is eternal. We usually think in terms of minutes, hours, days, weeks or years. God's plan, on the other hand, is beyond time; it is from eternity to eternity. Third, it's imperative that we admit that God and God's plan are, in this age, beyond our complete understanding. But, as we reflect on some of the messages Jesus gave to Sr. Faustina, we get helpful insights into God's mercy, demonstrated so clearly in the suffering and death of his son, Jesus, and how our suffering can lead us to better understand and appreciate God's mercy. In her Diary, St. Faustina wrote:

Suffering is a great grace; through suffering the soul becomes like the Savior; in suffering love becomes crystallized; the greater the suffering, the purer the love." (#57)

God's pure love for us is demonstrated so clearly in his son's crucifixion. As Jesus declared, "No greater love has one than to lay down his life for his friends" (Jn 15:13). We are called to unite our sufferings to Jesus; it is through our suffering that our love is purified.

I will not allow myself to be so absorbed in the whirlwind of work as to forget about God. I will spend all my free moments at the feet of the Master hidden in the Blessed Sacrament. (#82)

This decision that Sr. Faustina made in her life is a good one for us to make today. We need to find time to spend "at the feet of the Master."

When I see that the burden is beyond my strength, I do not consider or analyze it or probe into it, but I run like a child to the Heart of Jesus and say only one word to Him: "You can do all things." And then I keep silent, because I know that Jesus Himself will intervene in the matter, and as for me, instead of tormenting myself, I use that time to love Him. (#1033)

During this time of worldwide struggle, we can either fret and worry or we can turn to our Lord in love for, as St. Paul assures us so clearly, "all things work for the good for those who love God" (Rm 8:28).

And finally, we need to trust in God's mercy, for God's love is most clearly shown in his mercy and God's mercy is perfectly demonstrated in the life and death of his son. Jesus instructed Sr. Faustina:

"I am love and mercy itself. There is no misery that could be a match for my mercy, neither will misery exhaust it, because as it is being granted – it increases. The soul that trusts in my mercy is most fortunate, because I myself take care of it." (#1273)

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, we turn to our Lord who revealed himself to Sr. Faustina in a special way to reveal his mercy anew. Our Lord requested that the image be venerated on the Feast of Divine Mercy (The First Sunday after Easter, which we now call Divine Mercy Sunday). Jesus told St. Faustina, "I want this image, which you will paint with a brush, to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter; that Sunday is to be the Feast of Mercy" (Diary, 49). Through the generosity of one of our parishioners, we have a copy of that image; it will be displayed in our sanctuary all week for your veneration.

It was in space and time - at a particular moment in history in Jerusalem - that our Lord was raised from the dead, but the effects of his Resurrection must change the hearts and minds of people in every age as we prepare to be with God for all eternity. On this Divine Mercy Sunday, let us thank God for his love and mercy, which he demonstrated so clearly through the suffering and death of his Son, and pray for God's mercy among us and all peoples around the world, especially now. May God have mercy on us all!

PARISH ACTIVITIES
