THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

As they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven." (Acts 1:10-11)

This Thursday, we will celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension of our Lord, another significant feast during the Easter Season. This is a very important feast for us as we reflect on the end goal of our lives – eternal life with God in heaven! Allow me to offer you some food for thought.

Three days after Jesus was crucified, he rose from the dead and appeared to several of his followers. He then ascended into heaven where, as we proclaim every Sunday in the Nicene Creed, he "is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end." The gospels give a variety of time lines for his ascension, as well as different locations. The Gospel of Mark, which is the earliest and shortest of the four gospels, does not clearly indicate when or where Jesus ascended. We read that, "Afterward, he appeared to the eleven as they were reclining at table." After speaking to them, "he was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God" (Mk 16:14,19). The other gospels are more specific but they do not agree with each other regarding the details of time and place. The Gospel of John indicates Jesus' ascension occurs in Jerusalem sometime between his encounter with Mary Magdalene on the morning of his resurrection and his appearance to the disciples that evening (cf. Jn 20: 17ff). Matthew's Gospel doesn't specify when Jesus ascended but its last mention of Jesus speaking to his disciples is in Galilee (cf. Mt 28:16). Luke's Gospel, like John's, indicates that it happened on the day of the resurrection but in Bethany where he had led his disciples (cf. Lk 24:50). In the Acts of the Apostles, however, we read that Jesus "presented himself alive after his suffering, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days" (Acts 1:3) before "he was lifted up while they were looking on, and a cloud received him out of their sight" (Acts 1:9).

A literalist might get upset about these temporal and geographic discrepancies. A careful study of the Bible reveals, however, that, as it is with so many other details, the details provided of the time and place of the resurrection have theological, not historical, significance. In John's Gospel, for example, Jerusalem - and its temple - are important because Jesus is seen as the new temple and he leads us to the New Jerusalem - heaven. The authors of Matthew and Luke, on the other hand, see Jerusalem as the center of Jewish corruption and rejection of Jesus as Lord so they place the Ascension outside of Jerusalem. But, despite these discrepancies in the details, the fact of the Ascension remains central to our faith.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church offers an excellent teaching on the Ascension. In §659 of the Catechism, we read:

"So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God." Christ's body was glorified at the moment of his Resurrection, as proved by the new and supernatural properties it subsequently and permanently enjoys. But during the forty days when he eats and drinks familiarly with his disciples and teaches them about the kingdom, his glory remains veiled under the appearance of ordinary humanity. Jesus' final apparition ends with the irreversible entry of his humanity into divine glory, symbolized by the cloud and by heaven, where he is seated from that time forward at God's right hand.

Drawing from several of the scriptural accounts of our Lord's post-resurrection appearances, the Church teaches that Christ's body was glorified at his Resurrection, but his full glory did not become apparent until his Ascension. The Catechism goes on to explain in successive paragraphs:

§660 The veiled character of the glory of the Risen One during this time is intimated in his mysterious words to Mary Magdalene: "I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brethren and say to them, I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God" (Jn 20:17). This indicates a difference in manifestation between the glory of the risen Christ and that of the Christ exalted to the Father's right hand, a transition marked by the historical and transcendent event of the Ascension.

§663 Henceforth Christ is seated at the right hand of the Father: "By 'the Father's right hand' we understand the glory and honor of divinity, where he who exists as Son of God before all ages, indeed as God, of one being with the Father, is seated bodily after he became incarnate and his flesh was glorified."

§664 Being seated at the Father's right hand signifies the inauguration of the Messiah's kingdom, the fulfillment of the prophet Daniel's vision concerning the Son of man: "To him was given dominion and glory and kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed." After this event the apostles became witnesses of the "kingdom [that] will have no end".

Whereas the Resurrection assured our Lord's followers that he was alive, the Ascension gave them - and us - definitive assurance that God's kingdom has no end. As we approach the end of the Easter Season and continue to reflect on the meaning and significance of the mysteries of this great Season, let us be encouraged to follow the example of the first disciples and witness to everyone the new life our Lord offers in his Resurrection and the promise of entry into his eternal kingdom when he returns in glory!

UPDATE ON PARISH GYMNASIUM

As you may have already heard, we had a major flood in the parish center overnight on 28 - 29 April. Aqua PA connected the parish center to the new water main on Midland Avenue on Thursday evening, 28 April. In doing so, they damaged a water backflow prevention valve in the parish center mechanical room. They had assured me beforehand that they didn't need to get into the building to make this connection so no one checked the building Thursday evening after the water service was restored. Consequently, water flowed freely for 11 hours into the gym, the two locker rooms and several other rooms (mechanical, utility, refuse) before it was discovered Friday morning. We contacted Aqua PA and our archdiocesan insurance office immediately and restoration work began very quickly. Aqua engaged a restoration company who immediately began the necessary remediation work, installing air scrubbers, dehumidifiers and isolation barriers as well as checking for mold. Aqua also installed a replacement backflow prevention valve so water could be restored to the parish center. The sprinkler system was unaffected. Fortunately, the rest of the parish center is open for regular use. And fortunately, insurance should cover most, if not all of the costs of this major project.

The gym floor was damaged beyond repair so we received quotes from four very qualified companies that specialize in this work. With approval from the archdiocese, we signed a contract with Northeastern Flooring who was able to begin work and provide the necessary materials immediately. Since the gymnasium is 22 years old, we are also exploring options to paint it and install a sound system. Unfortunately, the gym is not able to be used at this time. We will work hard to make all of the necessary repairs as quickly as possible so that the gym will be able to be used as soon as possible. As my staff and I continually comment to each other, "never a dull moment!"

PARISH ACTIVITIES

After school Youth Group is still going strong until the end of May! All 7th and 8th graders are welcome to attend!

In 2020-2021, SKS school held a fundraiser to collect funds for a new water filtration system at the St. Martin de Porres school. Installation was a bit delayed due to the challenges of Covid, but SMdP is excited to announce that it's now up and running. Thanks to the generosity of our school community, the students now have functioning water fountains and water bottle filling stations with clean filtered water!

New family registration is now open for PREP

If you are a new family please scan the QR code for the pre-registration form or visit www.sksparish.org/newPREPreg.

Once submitted and processed, an email will be sent with instructions to finish the registration process. If you have questions, please contact Kim at religoused@sksparish.org.
