Requests for Prayers Sick Prayer List:

If you wish to have your name or the name of a loved one added to this prayer list, please call or email us. New names will appear in bold. Other than critical or terminal conditions, the names will remain on this list for 30 days. Please help us keep our prayer list current by letting us know when the status of a person on the sick list changes. Due to HIPAA laws, parish staff does not know if a parishioner is hospitalized or placed in a nursing home unless someone informs them. If you or a loved one would like the parish nurse or parish priest to visit the home or hospital, please call the rectory to make arrangements.

Attention All SKS Volunteers!

We are fortunate at St. Katharine's to have many parishioners who are willing to share their talents with our children. Thank you! All volunteers who spend time with children must obtain background clearances and safety training. If you will be helping this fall (school, PREP, CYO), you must have the requirements fulfilled before you can begin. You can find details on our website. SKS will host a Protecting God's Children workshop on October 5th at 7:00 pm. For information on how to register or details on other requirements, please contact Kim O'Neill at 610-688-4584.

An Invitation to Help Those in Need

Many people in the Philadelphia region, including in our own community, do not have enough to eat. For many years, St. Katharine parishioners have generously donated food and other supplies to those in need, who gratefully appreciate all that is provided. Please help continue our tradition of compassion by supporting Mercy Hospice and Caring for Friends, our parish ministries that fight hunger. You can find details on our website in the "Get Involved" tab. Or, contact Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436 or Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171 to learn more about Mercy Hospice. For Caring for Friends, call Kim O'Neill at 610-688-4584.

SKS BULLETIN INFORMATION

All Bulletin information must be to the rectory by 5pm on Monday. Bulletin inserts are due to the rectory at least 10 days before the date requested.

CHRISTMAS IN JULY – A LITTLE LATE

Due to its ongoing success here, the Bethlehem Carving Group will be returning, once again, to give us a taste of Christmas next weekend. It was originally planned for the end of July but scheduling conflicts led to its postponement to next week! Those of you who have visited our parish center when they have been here in the past know that the Bethlehem Carving Group offers a wide variety of beautiful olive wood carvings and other products for sale. I have invited the Bethlehem Carving Group to set up shop here for the past several years, both for our benefit and theirs. From my years of experience in the Holy Land, I know that this is one of the best companies and their carvings are of the finest quality. And, they offer new items every year! The wide variety of religious articles that they bring us will be lovely additions to your homes and make for excellent gifts, especially for Christmas but also for other occasions. I have given their handsome wood carvings both at Christmas and for wedding and baptismal gifts; the recipients have always appreciated them.

Purchasing these products from the Bethlehem Carving Group supports the Christians who are struggling to eke out a living in the land where Christianity was founded. I'm sure you have read or heard about the ongoing serious conflict between Israel and Palestine. The Christians live almost exclusively in the Palestinian territories (Bethlehem is located in the West Bank, one of the Palestinian territories) and their lives are made very difficult by these ongoing struggles. So, I invite you to come and shop for Christmas – or any other occasion – when representatives from the Bethlehem Carving Group come with their articles next weekend.

The olive wood handicraft art began in Bethlehem in the fourth century following the construction of the Church of the Nativity, built over the traditional birthplace of Jesus. The same monks who served the Church of the Nativity taught the handicraft trade of carving olive wood to the local Christian residents. This handicraft was then passed on from one generation to the next and was perfected and mastered, thus continuing the ancient tradition of beautiful and exquisite olive wood carvings in the Holy Land. The Bethlehem Carving Group artists combine the experience and skills of the old traditions with the innovation and creativity of the new generation.

Please stop by the tables that will be set out – either between the church and the rectory or in the parish center, depending on the weather – to examine these fine olive wood carvings; you might be tempted to buy a few! In doing so, you will get a chance to shop early for Christmas and, at the same time, you will be supporting our fellow Christians living in the land made sacred by our Lord.

OFFICE of the ARCHBISHOP

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Please consider making a generous gift to the upcoming second collection in support of The Catholic University of America. It was founded by a pontifical charter in 1887 as the research university of the Church in the United States and has a long tradition of dedicated service to Catholicism in our country.

Through its 12 schools, 32 research facilities, and more than 250 academic programs, the University community works tirelessly on behalf of its 5,700 undergraduate and graduate students. Under the guidance of its new President, Peter K. Kilpatrick, Ph.D., it will educate them to serve the Church and nation as the Catholic leaders of tomorrow.

Your gift to this special collection, the only national collection taken for Catholic higher education in our country, will not only go to support students in this critical time but also help the University better serve dioceses and parishes through innovative research and training programs. One such initiative is The Catholic Project, which brings together clergy and laity to address the myriad of challenges facing the Church in the United States. Overall, the University contributes superior education, formation, research, a Master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management, and a credentialing program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers.

The University's benefactors are critical to both a successful academic year and to all the important work that it does on behalf of the Church and the faithful in our country. If you are able, please make a contribution to the mission of the Catholic University of America, either directly at your parish or online through their dedicated site on the #igivecatholictogether platform. Please be generous in supporting this important collection. Please pray for me and be assured of a remembrance in my prayers.

Sincerely in Christ,

Archbishop Nelsen J. Pérez, D.D.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

PARISH ACTIVITIES

All college students – join us at one of the Masses next weekend for a special blessing and a little gift. Capri Water Ice will also be served for anyone attending the 5:00pm Mass and donuts will be served after the 9:30am and 11:30am Masses that same weekend! Wherever your journey takes you, know you are loved by God and this St. Katharine's community!

Pictured below are Kingsley (senior at Notre Dame) and Grace (senior at Drexel) serving the guests at St. Francis Inn. If you want to help St. Francis Inn the Youth Group will be collecting items in the church library and vestibule for the month of August. We are collecting tuna in a bag, fruit cups, granola bars and applesauce cups or squeeze pouches. The Youth Group will be assembling the bags at their Sept "Kick Off."
