Requests for Prayers Sick Prayer List:

If you wish to have your name or the name of a loved one added to this prayer list, please call or email us. New names will appear in bold. Other than critical or terminal conditions, the names will remain on this list for 30 days. Please help us keep our prayer list current by letting us know when the status of a person on the sick list changes. Due to HIPAA laws, parish staff does not know if a parishioner is hospitalized or placed in a nursing home unless someone informs them. If you or a loved one would like the parish nurse or parish priest to visit the home or hospital, please call the rectory to make arrangements.

Attention All SKS Volunteers!

We are fortunate at St. Katharine's to have many parishioners who are willing to share their talents with our children. Thank you! All volunteers who spend time with children must obtain background clearances and safety training. If you will be helping this fall (school, PREP, CYO), you must have the requirements fulfilled before you can begin. You can find details on our website. SKS will host a Protecting God's Children workshop on October 5th at 7:00 pm. For information on how to register or details on other requirements, please contact Kim O'Neill at 610-688-4584.

Parish Coffee

To help celebrate the start of a new school year, the SKS Home and School Board will be hosting a parish coffee after the 9:30am Mass this weekend. All are welcome to attend! We look forward to seeing you there!

Parish Nurse Ministry

If you, or a loved one, is sick and or homebound and would like a visit by the parish nurse to receive the Eucharist, please contact the rectory at 610-688-4584.

SKS BULLETIN INFORMATION

All Bulletin information must be to the rectory by 5pm on Monday. Bulletin inserts are due to the rectory at least 10 days before the date requested.

From the desk of Monsignor Brouwers

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

"This is my body given for you," we hear Jesus tell his apostles at the Last Supper; we hear similar words every time we gather to celebrate the Eucharist. As we celebrate Catechetical Sunday this weekend, with its theme this year of "This is my body given for you," we recall our Lord giving himself to us for our spiritual nourishment. It is also the only worthy gift we can offer to our heavenly Father in thanksgiving for all that he has given us. What a precious gift we have received and how eager we must be to share it with our children. This weekend, we join with the Church throughout our nation and around the world in celebrating Catechetical Sunday. Those whom the community has designated to serve as catechists will be called forth at the 9:30am Mass to be commissioned for their ministry. And, I will ask God's blessing on all parents who are present as well, praying that God may strengthen them in their resolve to share the precious gift of their faith with their children.

Catechetical Sunday is an important opportunity to reflect on the role that each Christian plays - by virtue of Baptism - in joining in our Lord's life, death and resurrection. Like Jesus, we humbly submit to our heavenly Father's will and joyfully share the Gospel – the good news of our salvation. And, as we join with all Catholics throughout our country in a three-year Eucharistic Revival, it is a moment for all of us to reflect on the great gift our Lord has given us: his own body, which he offers us in the precious Sacrament of the Eucharist. And more locally, as I invite everyone in the parish to embrace our new Parish Pastoral Plan, you will notice that the first priority of this plan is to focus, once again, on our Liturgical Experience whenever we gather to celebrate the Eucharist.

At this time, when we all know people – including members of our own families as well as close friends – who have left the Church for a wide variety of reasons, we need to remind ourselves about who we are as a Church. We come to Mass on Sunday to hear what we believe to be the Word of God in Scripture and to receive what we believe to be the life-giving Body and Blood of our Lord, Jesus Christ, his Son. Since we believe in Jesus, the Word of Life, it is important for all of us to reflect on this and rededicate ourselves to this essential aspect of our responsibility toward our children: being witnesses for Jesus Christ. This is particularly important for our parents because, as the Second Vatican Council states so clearly, "parents must be acknowledged as the first and foremost educators of their children." To emphasize this point, it goes on to say that "their role is so decisive that scarcely anything can compensate for their failure in it" (Declaration on Christian Education, §3). The Catechists who will be commissioned this week can only reinforce and codify the lessons that parents teach their children at home, both by word and example. We, the parish staff, recognize this and so we try to work closely with the parents of our students in both our parish school and our parish religious education program (PREP) so that each of us can fulfill our proper role in raising our children in the ways of the faith.

Catechesis is a distinct and special ministry in the Church. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church makes clear, "Catechesis is intimately bound up with the whole of the Church's life . . . her inner growth and correspondence with God's plan depend essentially on catechesis" (§ 7). This ministry of teaching in the name of the Church has a profound dignity, which is why catechists are formally commissioned by the Church. It is most appropriate that we set aside a day to highlight this ministry and invite the entire Church community to think about our responsibility to share our faith with others.

In a world where so many have forgotten God or turned away from God, catechesis leads us to understand that God is essential in our lives. Especially today, when so many people live simply according to their feelings and for their personal gain, catechesis teaches that we are made in the image and likeness of God and that true happiness is found in following His commands, especially the command to love God and our neighbor. After all, God has made us all for Himself and, as St. Augustine said so well, our hearts are restless until they rest in God.

As we begin another school year, let's all rededicate ourselves to learning about and deepening our faith so that, with our hearts burning within us like the first disciples, we may lead others – especially our children – to him with renewed zeal. And, let me take this opportunity, in the name of our entire parish, to thank those who have heard the call to become catechists for our children; it is such an extremely important role you play in passing on the precious gift of our faith!

PARISH ACTIVITIES

The 7th and 8th grades had a soggy, but fun, Youth Group Kick Off this past weekend. The teens had a rainy scavenger hunt, cookout, assembled protein bags for St. Francis Inn, popsicles and more! We will start up after school YG on Tuesday, Oct 4th from 3-4:00 pm. All are welcome

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Volunteers are needed for the Children's Liturgy of the Word. We are looking for volunteers to proclaim the Word of God during the 9:30am Sunday Mass to children grades K-6. Children's Liturgy of the Word, which takes place in the parish center, helps children understand and celebrate the scripture through readings and activities. No experience is necessary; only a love of children. Volunteers typically have an assignment every 4-6 weeks and must have all PA and diocesan clearances. For more information, please contact Michele Staves at mcstaves@gmail.com.

Men's Evening of Reflection

Please join us for the Men's Evening of Reflection with Father Scott Reilly, LC (in person or livestreamed) this Tuesday evening, September 20th in the parish center, starting at 6:30pm with Mass, followed by Father Scott's reflections. For more information, please contact Father Scott at frscott@legionaries.org.

Close-knit Community

The St. Katharine's Group of knitters and crocheters meets every Wednesday in the parish center from 1:00pm to 2:30pm. All are welcome to join us in making warm items for the needy. For information, please call Kim O'Neill at 610-688-4584.

Knights of Columbus

Mother Teresa of Calcutta is one of the most widely revered saints in the world, and one of the greatest spiritual giants of the 20th century. In 2022, as part of efforts to commemorate the 25th anniversary of her passing, the Knights of Columbus are delighted to have produced a feature length documentary film, Mother Teresa: No Greater Love, which offers an inspiring account of her life and legacy, as well as the work of her religious community, the Missionaries of Charity. The film will be shown on October 3rd and 4th at Regal Movie Theaters at 7:00pm (double check times). The trailer can be seen at motherteresamovie.com.

The Knights of Columbus and the Respect for Life will be sponsoring a talk by Judy Secoda from the Legacy of Life Foundation. The Legacy of Life Foundation is a non-profit organization that operates two crisis pregnancy centers. The talk will be at the end of the K of C meeting at 7:30pm Wednesday October 12th in the parish center. All parishioners are invited.

An Invitation to Help Those in Need

Many people in the Philadelphia region, including in our own community, do not have enough to eat. For many years, St. Katharine parishioners have generously donated food and other supplies to those in need, who gratefully appreciate all that is provided. Please help continue our tradition of compassion by supporting Mercy Hospice and Caring for Friends, our parish ministries that fight hunger. You can find details on our website in the "Get Involved" tab. Or, contact Jane Dooner at 610-505-1436 or Jane Dwyer at 610-306-9171 to learn more about Mercy Hospice. For Caring for Friends, call Kim O'Neill at 610-688-4584.

Volunteers Needed for Important Ministry at SKS

St. Katharine's has been a part of the IHN ministry for many years. Since we no longer host the families in our Parish Center, we partnered with Wayne Presbyterian Church as a support parish to continue to provide hospitality to families experiencing homelessness. IHN has updated their name & logo to reflect a long time national affiliation: Family Promise of the Main Line but their mission remains the same – to help families experiencing homelessness. The number of families in need is higher than ever. We need SKS volunteers to drop off a dinner or stay at WPC as a dinner or overnight host. Please consider helping one day during October 2nd - 9th. Contact Jane Till to volunteer or learn more: jane.jht@gmail.com; call or text: 610-710-6410.

SCHOOL CORNER

We are off to a great start at school! Grades 1-8 began on Wednesday, September 7th and our Kindergarten students began on Monday, September 12th. Teachers have welcomed students with bright classroom environments and many fun activities to set expectations and establish routines for the new school year. On Friday, September 16th, we gathered as a school for our Summer Reading Adventure. Students in grades K-5 read Encanto and grades 6-8 read Float. Students discussed the books and then partnered up with their "buddies" (older grades with younger grades) to complete a t-shirt activity focusing on celebrating our unique gifts and talents. I invite you to see the hallway display featuring our finished products! Next, we are looking forward to our first monthly school Mass on Wednesday September 21st at 9:00am. All are invited to join us!

Looking forward to a wonderful year at SKS!

Mrs. Crowley

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, of St. Katharine of Siena Parish, believe that we have been gifted with life, faith and discipleship. Empowered by Jesus in word and sacrament, we are called to grow in wisdom and grace, fidelity to His Church, and in service to our brothers and sisters.
