Catholic Schools United in Faith and Community

As we do every January, we begin today our celebration of National Catholic Schools Week, an annual celebration of Catholic education in our parish and, indeed, throughout the United States. It is an opportunity for us to recognize the importance of Catholic education and formation and to celebrate our school that has instructed and formed our children for 110 years! Our school has enjoyed a strong reputation as an outstanding Catholic elementary school ever since it opened in 1916. It was originally founded to ensure that the Catholic children in this area would receive both an excellent education and a strong foundation in their Catholic faith during a time when Catholics were a minority in the area. It has the same mission today and it is just as important now as it was more than 100 years ago. Our children excel academically as they are instilled with the Catholic teachings of love of God and neighbor. The national theme for this week – Catholic Schools: United in Faith and Community – is well reflected in our school. You will notice that the logo for Catholic Schools Week is made up of images of people surrounding a cross. This symbolizes the important reality that the Church – and all of its institutions, including its schools – are first and foremost, not buildings but people of faith encircling and embracing our Lord who proclaimed the Good News through his words and actions. As he drew people to himself while he was among us in person, we are called to draw everyone to our Lord. Our school equips your children to do this.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our principal, Mrs. Jeanne Mulvanerty, for her outstanding, enthusiastic leadership. She has continued to introduce new initiatives and approaches to help our students learn and grow. I also want to thank our dedicated teachers and staff who work so well together to instruct and form our students academically, socially and spiritually.

Let me also thank our Home and School Board that continues to find new and exciting ways to build the school community. Additionally, I am very grateful to our dedicated Board of Limited Jurisdiction, now in its seventh year of assisting our school in such important areas as marketing, enrollment and development. Under the energetic leadership of Bud Tosti and Tom and Moira Hobson, Chet Walsh, Jessie Bryan and Michelle Johnson, his co-leaders of our Fall Golf Classic, we raised $94,000 for our school. In fact, in the last fiscal year, our BLJ raised $689,000 for our school. Our School Endowment Fund has also grown to $850,000. This financial support is so important for the ongoing vitality of our school and I thank everyone who supports the outstanding fundraising efforts of our BLJ.

Faith, hope and love are the binding elements of Catholic schools. Our faith in Jesus Christ fills us with hope as we strive to follow him in love and lead others to him as well. As we celebrate Catholic Schools Week with great enthusiasm, let us be grateful to God for his love for us and energized to share his love with everyone we meet!

PARISH ACTIVITIES

This past Monday the Youth group held their 13th annual Dr. Martin Luther King Day of Service. The teens assembled 100 Jenna's Blessing Bags for the homeless, 200 protein and 200 toiletry bags for Mission Youth Philly in Kensington, 100 sandwiches for St. Patrick's Patrician Society in Norristown and 100 snack bags for Catholic Social Services. The teens attend the various local schools: Radnor Middle and High Schools, Conestoga Middle and High Schools, Malvern Prep, Archbishop Carroll, Agnes Irwin, The Haverford School, Benchmark, Baldwin and SKS. This day would not be possible without the donations from the generous St. Katharine School families and our amazing parishioners.

Women's Evening of Reflection Thursday, February 5

All women of Saint Katharine of Siena are invited to a special Women's Evening of Reflection centered on Our Lady of Guadalupe, the Feminine Genius, and the New Evangelization.

Our evening will be led by Rev. Thomas Viviano, who will serve as both speaker and celebrant, offering insight into Mary's unique role in the life of the Church and the powerful witness of women in today's world. We are also grateful to hear a personal testimony from Tracy Barausky, parishioner, mother, and teacher in the SKS School, who will share how faith is lived and nurtured in daily life.

This evening is designed as a time to pause, pray, and be renewed — a chance to reflect together on Mary's example and our own call as women of faith. All women of the parish are warmly welcome.

Cecelia Scholar

We're pleased to welcome violinist Tess Varley as our Cecelia Scholar January 25th and February 1st, 8th, and 15th at the 11:30 Mass. A Philadelphia-based musician, Tess performs widely throughout the region and currently serves as Assistant Concertmaster of the Philadelphia Ballet Orchestra and Acting Principal Second Violin of Opera Philadelphia. She is also Orchestra Director at Merion Mercy Academy, and her lyrical, expressive playing helps draw us more fully into the prayer of the liturgy.

Parish Coffee

In honor of Catholic Schools Week, please join us for a parish coffee in the parish center after the 9:30am Mass hosted by Home and School. All are welcome and we hope to see you there. Faithful families will offer a service project.

ARCHDIOCESAN NEWS

One year ago, Archbishop Perez published a Pastoral Letter, introducing his long-term plan to renew the Catholic Church in the Philadelphia region. Nearly 15,000 people (including many SKS parishioners) attended subsequent listening sessions to learn about his vision and give feedback on the future of the Church of Philadelphia.

The archdiocese is again asking for the lay faithful's help to strengthen the Church's presence and mission by:

- Participating in a second round of sessions to dive deeper into specific areas of interest identified from last year's discussions
◇ sksparish.org/hubsessions
- Completing a planning study survey to provide feedback on the proposed plans
