FROM THE DESK OF

Monsignor Brouwers

STEWARDSHIP WEEKEND

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself" (Mt. 22: 37-39).

We hear in today's reading from St. Matthew's Gospel a familiar message that we read throughout the Bible: God commands us to love him with all our heart, all our understanding and all our strength. First of all, we are called to adore and worship God. Every time we gather to celebrate the Eucharist, we proclaim that God's glory fills all of creation and we rejoice, proclaiming "Heaven and earth are full of your glory! Hosanna in the highest!" We thank God for all his blessings as we learn about how, down through the ages, he has called us back to himself and then, in the fullness of time, sent his Son to show us the way back to Him. And, we rejoice that his Son has given us his life-giving Body and Blood to nourish us on our journey.

Sacred Scripture also teaches us, over and over again, to love our neighbor as ourselves; we hear that also in today's Gospel passage. Our worship of God – who has blessed us in so many ways – leads us, in gratitude, to want to share this good news of our salvation with others. So, we use our time, talent and treasure to make God's goodness known to everyone. We care, in a special way, for those who are forgotten by the rest of society or who struggle, for one reason or other. We recall that our eternal destiny depends on our love of neighbor. As we will hear in just a few Sundays on the Solemnity of our Lord Jesus Christ the King: "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink" (Mt 25:34+35).

Finally, we hear our risen Lord command his followers to "go and make disciples of all nations, ...teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you" (Mt 28:19,20). We who have experienced Jesus' saving work in our lives are called to share our faith with those around us and lead them to an ever-deepening encounter with our Lord. And so, as we prepare for Stewardship Weekend, I invite you to reflect on how we can all be better stewards, using our time, talent and treasure to build up God's kingdom right here in our midst as we prepare to be welcomed into God's eternal kingdom in heaven.

Next weekend, we will, once again, observe Stewardship Sunday as we kick off our Annual Stewardship Appeal. Your support of the Stewardship Appeal allows us to sustain our many parish ministries, programs and outreach that help us continue to grow in love of God and neighbor. I want to thank you for your generous past response and ask you to prayerfully consider how you can even more generously provide the financial support we need to accomplish our mission as a parish. As you experience increased costs at home and work, we are experiencing increased costs to pay the salaries and benefits of our 57 parish and school staff members as well as for the maintenance of all of our beautiful facilities that are used by so many organizations and activities to accomplish the mission of our parish: to worship God and serve our brothers and sisters in Christ.

If you haven't yet, you will soon receive my Annual Stewardship Appeal letter, along with a brochure that highlights the ways that your contribution will help us continue to renew our Parish Center, ensuring that it remains a welcome and vibrant space for the many parish activities and ministries it hosts. Please read my letter carefully and prayerfully consider how you can contribute to the financial strength of your parish where we gather to worship God and are sent forth to love our neighbor and proclaim our love for our Lord.

Parish Spaghetti Dinner Fundraiser

Sunday, Nov. 1, 4:30-6:30pm
SKS School Cafeteria
$25 per person
kids 4 and under free

The SKS parish is invited to Faithful Families' first annual Spaghetti Dinner! Funds raised will support our monthly Parish Coffee service projects, which assist Catholic Charities of Philadelphia in providing food, shelter, education and care throughout the region.

The evening is also an opportunity for children to learn what it means to serve others as Christ taught. Faithful Families is looking for people to welcome and serve guests, set up, clean up and learn firsthand the joy of giving to others.

RESPECT LIFE

Join the Pro-Life Union of Greater Philadelphia for the Stand Up for Life Dinner on Sunday, November 22, 2026, at the Sheraton Downtown Philadelphia. Gather with fellow supporters for an evening celebrating the dignity of human life and honoring outstanding pro-life advocates.

The reception begins at 4:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 5:30 p.m. Invite family and friends, and/or organize a table! Scan the QR code below for details and to purchase individual seats or tables, or visit www.prolifeunion.org/2026suffl.

SKS PREP NEWS

Last Monday, Msgr. Brouwers celebrated a "Teaching Mass" for our 4:30pm PREP session. He explained the significance of the bells ringing and compared dressing the altar to setting our tables at home with our best tablecloths and china. PREP students actively learned as they brought up the gifts and participated as lectors and altar servers.

LAST WEEK AT SKS

Rosary and Tea

Faithful Families hosted Rosary and Tea last week, leading those gathered in asking Mary to carry their intentions to Jesus. Feel the peace and strength of praying with others at the Advent Rosary and Tea on December 4th.

Confirmandi, Coffee and Service

This past Sunday our Confirmation class was presented to our Parish at the 9:30am Mass. Monsignor blessed the 50 Confirmandi in attendance. Immediately following Mass, parishioners gathered for a parish coffee hosted by PREP and a service project from Faithful Families.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, of St. Katharine of Siena Parish, believe that we have been gifted with life, faith and discipleship. Empowered by Jesus in word and sacrament, we are called to grow in wisdom and grace, fidelity to His Church, and in service to our brothers and sisters.
